DEMOCRATS ARE JUMPING OFF THE WATER WAGON

Mr. Berry Keeps Time With Saloon Music at Uniontown.

NO CHANCES WITH WHISKY ELEMENT

Adjourns Meeting Before the Cafes Close in Order to Forestall a Walkout.

AFRAID OF ANOTHER FROST

Senator Dewalt Displays a Wonderful Affection for the Republican Party in Extolling Lincoln, Grant, McKinley and Roosevelt.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM FROM WALTER J. CHRISTY, Staff Correspondent.

UNIONTOWN, PA., Oct. 4.—In the arrangements for the Democratic meeting here tonight every precaution was taken to get as far away from the "water wagon" as possible, and close to the licensed saloon. One week ago Berry spoke in Uniontown under the auspices of the Prohibitionsists. The meeting was opened with prayer. This evening the Democrats were in control and it was opened to the accompaniment of popping corks and clinking glasses.

When the itinerary of William H. Berry, the Prohibition-Democratic candidate for state treasurer, was arranged it was found the Democrats and Prohibitionists of Fayette would not mix. A separate meeting was given the Prohibitionists with the understanding Berry would return to speak under the auspices of the Democracy.

The men who managed the meeting have been keeping tab on the troubles of Berry. They heard about Kittanning, where he had an extremely small meeting, and then lost 25 of his auditors who were thirsty and wanted to reach the bar before the closing hour of 10 o'clock. Fayette county Democrats are just as thirsty as their brtheren in Armstrong. This was taken into consideration in arranging for the meeting.

Timed Speech to Drinks.

With an indoor meeting, the Democrats were afraid of a frost. A happy thought came to some one. The new Gallatin hotel has a balcony in Gallatin avenue. Fifteen feet from the balcony is an entrance to the bar. In Fayette county no screens hide the "rum mills" from the street. The licensed saloon here is like an open book. The bars close at 9 o'clock. Berry's meetings usually begin at 8 o'clock, but tonight the start was made at 7 o'clock. Oddly enough, the speaking concluded just a few minutes before "night caps" were in order.

When Berry was here last he was assisted by a Prohibitionist, Homer L. Castle. Tonight to make sure of having a Democrat, Senator Arthur G. Dewalt was imported from Allentown, Lehigh county, where they grow Democrats and do not abhor beer.

The meeting was presided over by M. M. Cochran. Seated on the platform were former Senator A. D. Boyd and several other Fayette county Democrats. Berry spoke first and then went to Connellsville, where with Wooda N. Carr of Uniontown, he addressed another open air meeting, adjacent to the Marietta hotel, a licensed house.

Where Berry Weakens.

Berry must have heard from the east, which he has been telling the people of the west is in a state of "upheval." According to his talk tonight the latest advices from the "upheval" indicate that conditions are becoming more normal. At Meadville Saturday night he told a handful of the faithful he would have 125,000 Republican votes within a radius of 50 miles of Philadelphia city hall. This evening he is to get the same amount of votes, but has increased the radius to 100 miles.

Senator Dewalt has a wonderful affection for the Republican party this fall. He is making a speech which would no "go" among his constituents in Lehigh. He wants the people to forget party lines and help to make a Democratic victory in the state. It is wonderful to hear of the adoration the Democrats have for Lincoln, Grant, McKinley and Roosevelt. Contemplate Senator Dewalt talking to the Democrats of Lehigh about the "magnificent achievements" of the Republican party? His proposition is to just borrow enough Republicans this fall to elect Berry and then allow them to return to their old love. His box of salve is dripping over the edges, so bounteously has he supplied it.

Boyd Was Silent.

Should his bait be taken, the dust would be brushed from every Democratic rooster in the state on the night of November 7 and their crow would be heard all over the commonwealth. Senator Dewalt will find that this is a "closed" season for suckers.

After Dewalt had finished there were loud and long cries for "Boyd," but the senator refused to make a speech. Perhaps he was in the same predicament as James R. Gray, who was induced to say a few words and came on the first call. He said that he was not posted on the issues and anything he would say might be considered as an attempt to add fragrance to the rose. Then he got his wind and with a "however" he was off and it lasted some time.

George B. Jeffries needed the call. He heard someone in the audience say: "There are so few of us and it is so seldom we get together, you ought to say something." E. D. Fulton was brought out. He inquired the issue and some one gave it to him in these words: "Elect all the Democrats."

Berry and Dewalt will speak at Clarion tomorrow night.

CORTELYOU TO BECOME SECRETARY OF TREASURY

Postmaster General Finally Consents to Succeed Mr. Shaw.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—It is stated positively by a close friend of the President that Postmaster General Cortelyou will succeed Secretary of the Treasury Shaw when he retires in February.

The place was offered to Mr. Cortelyou some time ago and he declined the offer. Since then the President has renewed his offer, and only a few days ago, it is said, Mr. Cortelyou accepted.

Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte, according to this program is to become attorney general when Mr. Moody retires from the cabinet. The date of the retirement of Mr. Moody has not been determined.

PITTSBURGH LOCHINVAR RIDES FOR HIS BRIDE

Goes on Horseback Twenty Miles With Fiancee to Get Mother's Consent, Then Back to Girl's Aunt.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

COLORADO SPRINGS, COL., Oct. 4.—The marriage of Louise Cochran to Clarence C. Nevin, a wealthy Pittsburger, at Grand Junction, yesterday, followed an arduous romance in which the young man with his fiancee made a ride on horseback of 20 miles, to gain the consent of the girl's mother.

Nor was this all, for after receiving Mrs. Cochran's consent, the daughter insisted that her aunt, Mrs. George Hazel, who lives at Grand Junction, should be told of the couple's plans, which meant a return ride before the ceremony could be performed.

Miss Cochran is an unusually attractive girl, and months ago, when Nevin came out from his Pittsburgh home, he fell captive to her charms. His suit was discouraged, however, on account of the youth of the two, but, not daunted, the young man settled on government land, determined to show the girl's parents that he was made of the proper stuff.

VICTORY FOR PITTSBURGH.

Investigating Commission Makes Favorable Report on Establishment of Pneumatic Mail Tubes Here.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—(Special.)—A favorable report has been made to the postoffice department by the commission appointed to investigate the pneumatic tube mail service project at Pittsburgh. The report was placed in the hands of Second Assistant Postmaster General Shallenberger this afternoon, who will submit it to congress this winter.

In all probability the findings of the board will be included in the estimates of the postmaster general for the needed expenses of the department. This, it is thought, will greatly assist the Pennsylvania senators in the next session when they make their fight for the improvement.

The value of the collection is estimated at $200,000. An Englishman staying at the same hotel has been arrested on suspicion.

DISLIKES ANNUAL DIVIDENDS

Knows of No Legislative Pool, and the Checks Alleged to Have Been Paid to Judge Hamilton for Such Work Have Disappeared.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance Company at one-half per cent below the market rate was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life Insurance Company testified he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1903; the loan was renewed in January, 1904, and ran until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it is still running.

Mr. McCall testified he was a director of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, but not a stockholder. The fact of his being a director, Mr. McCall continued, did not deter him from procuring a loan at as low a rate of interest as possible when it was to his interest to do so.

Somewhat of a sensation was caused in the late hours of today's session when Neil F. Towner of Albany was called and disclaimed any knowledge of the whereabouts of cancelled checks of Judge Andrew Hamilton of Albany. Mr. Towner testified that he was associated with Judge Hamilton in the practice of law in Albany. The Hamilton account was again under investigation and Mr. McCall had been excused for a few minutes while Mr. Towner took the stand.

Checks Had Vanished.

Mr. Towner testified he had made deposits for Judge Hamilton, but not while the latter was in Europe. He had taken some cancelled checks from the Albany Trust Company early in September and had thrown them into a drawer in Judge Hamilton's desk. He had had no occasion to look at them again until last week when he received the subpoena to appear before the committee. He was asked to bring these checks with him, but when he looked for them they were gone. He had no knowledge, he declared, of where they could have gone or who could have taken them. Pressed by Hughes he said almost anybody had access to the drawer in which the checks were placed.

Mr. McCall, resuming, was asked about a deposit to the credit of Judge Hamilton of $102,041 on September 1, 1905. Mr. McCall said the New York Life Insurance Company had paid Mr. Hamilton no money, but suggested that part of it might have come from the state controller's office by reason of an assignment of tax moneys which would come to the judge by reason of his securing the repeal of the tax law which relieved the New York Life from payment of taxes. Judge Hamilton was to have one-third of the amount that would rebate to the company, a sum of $272,000, netting Mr. Hamilton about $90,000.

McCall Housed His Sons.

Just before the committee adjourned for the day Edward F. Devlin, the real estate manager for the New York Life Insurance Company, testified that the New York Life had acquired by foreclosure an apartment house in one of the most desirable residential sections of this city, and the cost, with the improvements deemed necessary, was $303,656. The net income from this property was found to be .022 per cent on the investment. Among the improvements was the throwing of two apartments into one of nine rooms with two baths. These were rented for $1,500 and $1,800 a year.

It then developed that four of the tenants were the immediate family of President McCall, three sons and a son-in-law. Mr. Devlin was asked who fixed the rental of these properties, and he said he discussed the matter with Mr. McCall.

Mr. McCall enlivened the day's proceedings further when he said that there was no record on the books of the New York Life Insurance Company of the $150,000 paid the Republican national committee for contributions to presidential campaigns. While he had no personal knowledge the money was paid, he assumed it was, because he had told the treasurer to make these payments.

Knew of No Pool.

Earlier in the day Mr. McCall, in detailing the general legislation work of Judge Hamilton and the counsel he employed, denied any knowledge of the legislative pool which was disclosed in the examination of Alfred W. Maine, auditor of the Equitable Life Assurance society, last week.

Mr. McCall on this question made the startling assertion that three-quarters of the bills affecting life insurance companies were in the nature of blackmail. The officers of the companies were worried at the beginning of each year, he said, by the proposal of laws that would hamper their companies, and these officers "really trembled at what they would have to submit."

COUNTY DETECTIVES TO SAFEGUARD THE PEOPLE

The county detectives will guard the interests of the people in two very important particulars where the city police have proved delinquent. Superintendent Wallace, having shown indifference as to the existence of gambling and illegal liquor selling in clubs, Superintendent Robinson and the county detectives will close them. The city police department having shown lack of ability in safeguarding the people in prominent parts of the city, District Attorney Stewart has issued instructions to his officers to do the work. Beginning with last night county detectives will indefinitely be on guard in the vicinity of the jail and court house, where several holdups have occurred in the past few nights.

"I do not want to interfere with the work of the city policemen," said District Attorney Stewart, "but I feel that something should be done to prevent these outrages. I believe that, with the county detectives patrolling the streets in the vicinity of the court house, the citizens will be given the protection to which they are entitled."

Every chartered club in the city or county, where gambling is carried on or where drinks are sold, is to be raided. The county detectives have received their instructions and the work of collecting evidence has already started.

MR. ROOSEVELT IS PRIMED FOR SOUTH

President Will Discuss Important Issues During His Trip to Dixie Land.

HIS GREATEST OPPORTUNITY

President Roosevelt is primed for some important political utterances during his forthcoming trip through the southern states. He has already written a speech on the Chinese exclusion policy, which he will deliver at Raleigh, N. C. At other points he will express his views on such important things as rate legislation, the navy, Santo Domingo and possibly Venezuela. The President's friends in the south have told him that his popularity is now immense among all classes. It is thought that if ever the President would be able to sound the keynote of his policies with effect it will be during this journey.

Senator Simmons of North Carolina called at the White House today to ask the President to stop longer at Raleigh than he contemplated doing, but the President felt obliged to decline reluctantly as well as to refuse to make certain stops elsewhere in the state. He talked with Senator Simmons about the speech he will deliver at Raleigh. Senator Simmons declared that he was with the President on railroad rate legislation, revision of the tariff and better treatment of the Chinese of the better class who desire to enter the United States.

Representatives Meyer and Davy of Louisiana and Postmaster Thomas J. Woodward of New Orleans told the President he would be as safe in New Orleans from yellow fever as in Washington from smallpox and typhoid. They desired that he should remain over night there on October 26, so that he might be entertained at a banquet tendered by the city. It is probable, however, that the President will not remain over night.

It was tentatively decided today that either the Pennsylvania or West Virginia should bring the President north from New Orleans. The West Virginia is the flagship of Rear Admiral Brownson. The Pennsylvania is commanded by Capt. T. C. L. McLean, who was also in Washington today. She is the fastest ship of the squadron.

Senator Martin brought to the White House a delegation from Petersburg, Va., with an invitation for him to attend there the reunion of the confederate veterans of Virginia, which is to be signalized by a reproduction of the battle in the Crater. The President felt obliged to decline this invitation.

LOCAL FIRM TO BUILD WAREHOUSES ON POINT

W. F. Trimble & Sons Company Receives a $1,000,000 Contract from the P. R. R.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company yesterday awarded the contracts which end the long series of awards in connection with the warehouse and freight terminals at the Point.

The W. F. Trimble & Sons' Company of Allegheny, which two weeks ago received the contract for the outbound freight warehouse, yesterday received the contract for the larger inbound structure, while the awards of the painting, plumbing, heating and elevator contracts were made to Philadelphia concerns. A total of $1,000,000 is involved in the buildings alone.

The two warehouses will front in Third street and extend to Water street at the rear. The inbound will be along Duquesne way, having a length of 900 feet and a width of 48. Half of its length, lying toward Third street, will be four stories high; the other half being one story. It will have eight or ten elevators, 9x14 feet in size. The driveway and approach will be in Duquesne way.

The outbound warehouse will be 72 feet away from the inbound, lying toward Penn avenue, with tracks running back between the structures. It will be 720 feet long and 56 feet wide, including the driveway. Its front portion will be two stories high, the rear being one story.

"HUNGER STRIKE" SPREADS.

Russian Prisoners Still Refuse to Eat Because of the Rough Treatment of a Female Convict.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 4.—The "hunger strike," which began October 2 in the women's department of one of the large prisons here, devoted to the detention of political offenders, has become general.

For three days all the inmates of the prison have been refusing to eat as a protest against the rough treatment of a female prisoner and the general administrative conditions in the prison. The prisoners are mainly Socialists, many of whom were arrested last week.

"DAVID HARUM" MAKES $125,000 FOR ESTATE

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 4.—"David Harum," the novel written by the late Edward Noyes Westcott of this city, netted the author's estate about $125,000 according to a statement made in surrogate's court today when the final accounting of the executrix of the estate was filed. Mr. Westcott, who was a banker, died seven years ago, and the estate was held open to derive the benefits from the sale of the novel.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—(Special.)—William R. Hearst was nominated for mayor by more than 2,000 men who attended the meeting of the Municipal Ownership league tonight. The nomination was made after Mr. Hearst finished his speech in which he arraigned severely the leaders of both the Republican and Tammany organizations.

BIG NEGRO THIEF FEARS NAUGHT OF POLICE

Nervous Collapse Results from Mrs. Borland's Meeting Burglar Face to Face.

INCOMPETENCY OF THE FORCE

Mrs. Harriet Borland, an aged woman, is confined to her bed at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary E. McCaulley, 2007 Kennett square, a victim of nervous prostration. This condition is the result of meeting a negro burglar face to face in an upstairs room Tuesday afternoon, at a time when she was alone in the house. The negro, on being discovered, roughly brushed the aged woman aside and ran from the house. Mrs. Borland is in such condition that it is feared she will never recover from the shock.

Oakland burglars, or those who operate in that part of the city, evidently hold "Buck" Wallace's policemen very cheaply, as this robbery was attempted in broad daylight, and at a time when there were scores of people within hailing distance. It is hardly necessary to state, however, that there were no policemen numbered among these. People in that part of the city say it is seldom they are gladdened by the sight of a bluecoat.

About 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon Mrs. McCaulley left the house for a few minutes to go to the store. She did not lock the front door, intending to hurry right back. Mrs. Borland was in the dining-room when she heard a noise in the back bedroom and started to investigate.

As she entered the room Mrs. Borland noticed that a large dresser had been pushed aside. As she went to walk around it, a big negro jumped out at her, and, brushing her aside rushed down stairs and out of the house by the front door. Mrs. Borland was terror stricken and fell to the floor from the shock.

When Mrs. McCaulley returned she found her aged mother prostrated from the fright. The neighbors were summoned and Mrs. Borland was put to bed. She is now suffering from nervous prostration. The burglar is described as being a man about six feet in height, weighing about 200 pounds, with very broad shoulders. He was fairly well dressed.

The aged woman is in such a nervous condition that she could not talk about the affair yesterday. Mrs. McCaulley said she thought her mother would never be able to banish the sight of the negro from her memory. Mrs. McCaulley was asked by a Gazette reporter if she had reported the case to the police. She smiled and replied: "What's the use?"

The burglar secured no booty. It is thought he had been in the house but a few minutes when discovered. Mrs. McCaulley's neighbors say it is seldom that a policeman ever puts in an appearance in that section of the city. Burglaries have been committed in Oakland and the police have been notified of it, but after the investigation nothing is done to capture the thieves.

MISSOURI LIKELY TO ENTER FIGHT

State May Test Northern Securities Decision Against Gould's Merger Plans.

WILL AFFECT MANY ROADS

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, MO.—Growing out of the injunction proceedings brought by Joseph Ramsey, Jr., against the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain roads, George J. Gould, Walter S. Wilson, H. M. Walker and the Mercantile Trust Co., New York, to restrain the railroads mentioned from voting their holdings of stock in the Wabash at the annual election of directors in Toledo, October 10, there probably will be brought within the next few days another and more important proceeding to expose the legal process of the "minority control and method of railroad financeering" and enforce the Missouri laws against two or more competing railroad having identical officers. This action is to be brought in behalf of the state of Missouri by the attorney general or a special counsel representing him.

The proceeding will be based on the revelations to be made at the hearing of the Ramsey injunction suit. It is expected to result in an important extension of the principles enunciated in the famous Northern Securities decision, and undoubtedly will have a vital effect on the present controversy for control of the Wabash, although it is positively stated the new proceeding will not be instigated by Ramsey and that he is not behind the men urging the attorney general to proceed.

The principle to be exploited is whether a group of financiers may acquire ownership or control of one road by a small margin, and then exercise this control to have the road issue bonds in order to secure control of another road, in the same manner acquire another road, and ultimately beget a condition of one group of minority stockholders dominating the large system.

The definite question will be whether it is legal by such combinations and methods for an active and energetic minority to manage the properties of an inactive majority, and have unrestricted power in manipulating the value of securities and real property.

Since the Ramsey injunction suit was filed, railroad men and financiers generally have expressed the fear it would result in more than the mere settlement of the point at issue, whether Gould can vote Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain holdings in the Wabash. It is believed the decision of the point thus raised for the first time will affect many roads throughout the country inter-related in ownership and control, and result in a tremendous extension of the Northern Securities decision.

It is claimed by Ramsey's friends that, as the result of the revelations made during the next few days' legal proceedings, Gould will be barred from the presidency of the Wabash, even should he control a majority of the Wabash stock debentures, a contingency Ramsey's friends by no means admit.

RAMSEY IS DOGGED BY PRIVATE SLEUTHS

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—(Special.)—With his injunction proceedings, Joseph Ramsey, Jr., president of the Wabash railroad, has brought about an acute crisis in his relations with the Gould interests. Mr. Ramsey is personally taking a very large share in this activity, and he admits that for the last week he has been dogged day and night by private detectives, who report every movement he makes.

OFFICERS PLAY SLEUTH'S ROLE

Forward Township Constables in Strange Disguise Outdo Sherlock Holmes.

JUST LIKE THE WILD WEST

"Mr. District Attorney, have I your permission to shoot a man if he further continues to resist arrest?"

This was the question that Constable John W. White of Forward township propounded to the district attorney one day last week. It created a sensation. District Attorney Stewart wanted to know what was wrong, and why a feud had been started in Forward.

"It isn't any feud," replied the constable, "but two farmers have gotten into a row about their line fences and one of them is guarding the premises with a Winchester rifle. Unless I go there prepared for trouble I'll be shot. This is no laughing matter."

"Well, try to bring in your man, but don't kill him," advised the district attorney.

The scene in the court house was the second act in the drama. The last was witnessed in the Allegheny county jail last night, when Constable White and William Zimmerman, his friend and neighbor, brought in S. F. Scott, charged with resisting arrest and pointing firearms with intent to kill; and his brother, John B. Scott, who is charged with the crime of aiding and abetting the escape of a criminal. Both men were lodged in prison, and the constable—quite out of breath—recited the story of their capture. No tale of the plains was ever more thrilling, and no Kentucky feud ever was prosecuted with more vigor.

S. F. Scott and Zimmerman disputed the position of the line fence between their farms. In the trouble that followed, Zimmerman swore out a warrant against Scott. Constable Hobough was sent to serve the paper and, it is alleged, Scott ran into his house and came forth with a rifle. The constable didn't want to stop any bullets and fled.

On Monday Hobough, with Constable White and Samuel Painter of Elizabeth tried again to capture Scott. They were sighted in the distance by J. B. Scott, who leaned upon his horse to warn his brother. According to the constable's story, S. F. Scott again got out his ever-ready Winchester. After being foiled this time, the constable went to the district attorney for advice. Being admonished to remain passive in the matter of shooting, he turned his badge upside down, and said to himself:

"Here's where I show them that I'm a real Sherlock Holmes."

He enlisted the services of James Piner, a friend, and Constable Michael Snare. They disguised themselves as Hebrew peddlers. They filled canvas tarpaulins with old clothes and horse blankets, and waddled along the road and up the lane to Scott's house. Scott hailed them and declared that he wanted none of their wares.

"Haf you got any apples?" asked the disguised constable.

"Get out of this," shouted Scott.

"I gif you for a quarter a haf a peck for peaches," said the constable.

The price was more than Scott could resist and he stopped to make a deal. While he was getting the fruit the pseudo-Hebrews slipped on the handcuffs. At the same moment Scott's brother, it is alleged, rode up at a full gallop.

"Stop, there!" he shouted, reining up his horse.

"Stop yourself, cried the constables, and simultaneously both turned and covered him with two revolvers apiece.

The brother on horseback threw up his hands. He was unarmed and made no further resistance. Both men were then taken to jail.

LEARNS THAT BROTHER IS CANNIBALS' VICTIM

That his brother was horribly murdered and given to sharks by cannibals of Matticolo island, New Hebrides, was the startling information received yesterday by R. G. Pentecost of the Thomas Wightman Glass Company, 932 Second avenue. Mr. Pentecost's eldest brother, Capt. R. T. Pentecost, captain and owner of the schooner Petrel, was captured and murdered in the most revolting manner. The full details of the butchery will not be known for about 30 days, said Mr. Pentecost.

So far as Mr. Pentecost has learned his brother was tied to a tree and transfixed with spears by the natives of the island. While still conscious he was thrown to the sharks, the natives dancing about, after which a cannibal feast was held. A French warship was sent to the island and during the attack and burning of the village of the natives, a marine gunner and four natives were killed and the murderers of Capt. Pentecost and his crew captured.

Capt. Pentecost was aged 50 and an Englishman. He had been at sea for 35 years, trading in the southern seas.

SURPRISES OFFICIALS.

After Oliver Hall Disappears They Learn He Belongs to Distinguished West Virginia Family.

Workmen at the Homestead and Carnegie mills were thrown into a flurry of surprise yesterday by the discovery that their fellow-workman, had disappeared and left no trace of his whereabouts. When inquiry was made at the offices at the mill for young Hall, it was learned that he was Gassaway Davis, a nephew of Henry Gassaway Davis, late candidate for vice president on the Democratic ticket of West Virginia, and had been working under the assumed name of Oliver Hall. The questioner confided to the officials that he was J. H. Davis, of Davis, W. Va., the young man's father.

Davis was employed as a fireman on one of the yard engines at the mill, on which he heaved coal into the furnace and wiped the brass decorations with oily waste. The youth is 21 years old and six feet tall, of polished manners, and the build of a West Virginia mountaineer. He knew how to fire an engine, and when his engineer sailed through the yards at a lively gait with a red hot ingot for the rolls, the coal-heaving scion of a distinguished family was in his element.

The last seen of young Davis was when he walked into a Homestead barber shop with a dinner bucket. He left the bucket behind him and nothing has been seen of him since. The young man's father wants him to return home, but he has covered his tracks so well no one knows his whereabouts.

DRUG CLERK'S MISTAKE NEARLY COSTS LIFE OF MRS. WOODRUFF

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—In the middle of the performance at the New York Hippodrome this afternoon, Mrs. W. W. Woodruff of Pittsburgh, who was sitting in one of the promenade boxes, suddenly clapped her hands to her head, uttered a loud shriek and fell to the floor in convulsions. Through the negligence or error of a drug clerk in New Milford, Conn., she had been swallowing morphine pills without knowing what they were. Her life was saved only by prompt and energetic work on the part of physicians.

Mrs. Woodruff, whose husband is a wholesale grocery broker, lives at No. 420 Denniston avenue. She was with her mother and her two children. They spent the summer at Laurel Beach, Conn., but closed their cottage there Tuesday and arranged to leave for home today. Early this morning Mrs. Woodruff was seized with a violent attack of cramps and sent to the nearest drug store in New Milford for a remedy.

The druggist sent a box containing a dozen pills, but by the time they arrived the pain had subsided and Mrs. Woodruff left the box unopened. While at luncheon in New York Mrs. Woodruff's attack returned and she swallowed three of the pills. They eased her pain and a visit to the Hippodrome was proposed.

The family group were enjoying themselves, when once again Mrs. Woodruff complained and again she had recourse to the pills, taking three more. Then came the attack of of convulsions.

Dr. W. E. Young saw Mrs. Woodruff was suffering from some form of acute poisoning. She was borne quickly to the Hippodrome's private hospital. There he worked over her until 6 o'clock in the evening, sometimes in despair of restoring her, but heroic measures had their effect by that time and the danger point was passed.

W. W. Woodruff is at the head of the W. W. Woodruff Company, merchandise brokers at Twelfth street and Penn avenue. He and his family for a time lived in McClure avenue, Wilkinsburg, but moved from there several months ago.

When a call was made at 420 Denniston avenue early this morning no one could be aroused. The policeman on the beat said there had been furniture in the house for the past four or five months but that no one had lived there in all that time.

M'CALL'S LOAN IS THRIFTY PIECE OF WORK

While Mr. Hughes was engaged in looking up some documents, Chairman Armstrong took the opportunity to ask Mr. McCall if he had ever given any thought as to the feasibility of a standard policy that should be written by all companies. Mr. McCall said he had, and he thought if some such policy could be devised it would be a good thing.

During the course of his testimony Mr. McCall said a company's surplus is earned by a lesser mortality than that assumed to be probable, and also by securing a rate of interest on money and investments, better than that counted upon in the actuaries' tables.

Mr. McCall said the increasing compensation for agents was a temptation for agents to rebate, but that under the "Nylic" system the agents contracted not to do so, and forfeited all benefits of that system if they violated their agreements.

After explaining the tontine and deferred dividend plans of insurance, Mr. McCall said:

"Every fund of the New York Life Insurance Company has a class. There is no fund which may be expended for the motives of its officers. There is no reserve or surplus that does not come under the provisions of the laws of New York."

Mr. McCall was asked if he agreed with Elias Wright, sponsor for the Massachusetts forfeiture law of 1881, that a life insurance company's reserve should be the absolute property of the policyholders. The witness replied he did not. His own view was that a policyholder who surrenders a policy breaks a contract, and it was only just that a charge be made against his reserve toward the expense the company would have in writing a new policy.

Did Not Favor Germany.

Mr. McCall said the New York Life Insurance Company did not make a reduction in favor of German subjects in order to keep its hold on German business, nor did the company issue a policy to a single Spanish soldier during the war.

Mr. McCall said the New York Life Insurance Company began to make loans to its own policyholders in 1892.

"You know it is against the law for companies to make loans against their own policies?" asked Mr. McKeen.

"I never heard that before," replied Mr. McCall.

Senator Tully asked how general this practice is among the companies. Mr. McCall said:

"We have been forced into it lately, and there is really no difference between loans upon polices and surrender values except that in the latter case the policy does not continue in force."

Rufus Wellen Weeks, actuary and second vice president of the New York Life Insurance Company, who succeeded Mr. McCall as a witness, admitted that the company paid agents more for deferred dividend policies, which are easier to write, according to the witness, than for writing the annual dividend policy. Witness said this was because the deferred dividend policy was more to be desired by the company because it furnished a fund to carry on new business.

Cost of New Business.

"It seems to me," said Mr. McKeen, "that your company is running mad to get new business and in doing so forgets the interests of the policy holders."

Mr. Weeks denied this and declared that if the New York Life Insurance Company did business on an annual dividend basis it would not be able to continue.

Lawyer Hughes read a letter from the home office of the New York Life Insurance Company to its general manager for Europe, in which it stated that in 1902 the company had to borrow $14,900,000 from its surplus to purchase new business. In one year, the lawyer showed, the new business cost the company about $7,500,000 over and above all premiums received from it. The sum paid out to get the new business was $10,785,575. The premiums from new business paid to the company in the year amounted to $3,085,650.

Mr. Weeks admitted that the total expenses of the company would be reduced by about $19,000,000 a year if no new business were written.

When asked whether there had been conferences among officers of different companies held with a view to having the companies make about the same showing in the matter of dividends, Mr. Weeks admitted that he had "talked" with an officer of the Equitable.

At the afternoon session Associate Counsel McKeen asked Mr. McCall if, when he contributed to the Republican campaign fund, there was any understanding that the federal government was to grant any favors. Witness replied there was none, and that the federal government was not in a position to grant favors to the New York Life Insurance Company, because insurance had been held not to be commerce.

Mr. Hughes then took up Mr. McCall's testimony of this morning regarding legislation and asked what he did to ward off the hostile attacks. Mr. McCall described the organization of the work of Judge Hamilton, and produced a statement of the payments to him. This showed that between June 1, 1900, and August 31, 1905, payments amounting to $1,103,936 for law expenses were made, of which Mr. Hamilton received $406,927, and for which the company had no vouchers. It states where Mr. Hamilton looked after legislation he was expected to deal with the man who could produce results. Mr. McCall said: "He denied any knowledge of the legislative pool with the Equitable Life Assurance society and the Mutual Life Insurance company, and said he did not know what Judge Hamilton might have done."

Got Loan at Ground Rates.

The New York Life made a loan to John R. Hegeman at 1½ per cent," asked Mr. Hughes.

"I don't know about that, but I do know that I got a loan from the Metropolitan Life at 1½ per cent, replied Mr. McCall.

When was that?

Two years ago.

And you are a director of the Metropolitan Life?

I am.

Was the loan made to you on January 22, 1903, $50,000?

Yes.

And on January 2, 1904, it was renewed to run through the year at 1½ per cent and on March 17, 1903, you got an additional loan of $25,000?

Yes.

And the loan of $75,000 is still outstanding?

Yes, but in 1906 it was increased to 2 per cent.

Would you take a loan from the Metropolitan Life for nothing?

No.

Is your son-in-law, Albert McQuade, connected with the New York Life?

He is.

What is his salary?

Fifteen thousand dollars a year.

Is J. C. Burrell a relative of your, and is he employed by the New York Life?

Yes.

What is his salary?

It is $7,500.

Do you know of the practice of the insurance companies contributing equally to the expenses of defensive actions?

Only in one instance, and the third of the amount paid by the New York Life was $14,000.

Discourages Annual Dividends.

A statement written to one of your patrons states that the New York Life discourages annual dividend policies, is it the policy of the company to discourage such policies?

Yes, if we credited the policy-holders with what they are entitled to they would be dissatisfied.

Are there companies who do an annual dividend business?

Yes.

Do you think that kind of business difficult and unprofitable??

I do, and you will find that some of the companies pay 20 per cent more commission than we do.

How do they manage to get along?

They pay the dividends out of the surplus.

So does the New York Life?

Yes, but there are others.

Senator Armstrong asked:

"In bills that annoyed you, were the recommendations of the state insurance department neglected?"

"Yes."

"You find the department conservative and right-minded?"

"Yes."

The session then adjourned until tomorrow morning, when the affairs of the Mutual Life Insurance Company probably will be considered. At the conclusion of the afternoon session the committee held a brief consultation with their counsel as to what action should be taken with reference to the letter received from Samuel Untermayer on behalf of James Hazen Hyde. It was decided to leave the matter in the hands of Charles E. Hughes. Mr. Hughes decided to reply to Mr. Untermayer and to publish the letter if Mr. Untermayer had no objection.

DEMOCRATS PLOTTED TO OVERTHROW CONSTITUTION

Secretary Bonaparte Tells Some Glaring Truths About the Political Situation in Maryland.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

BALTIMORE, Oct. 4.—An adjourned meeting of the Republican state convention was held tonight to make a nomination for state comptroller., Henry M. McCullough being given the nomination unanimously. Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte presided and was the principal speaker.

Secretary Bonaparte confined his remarks chiefly to a consideration of the proposed constitutional amendment, the declared purpose of which is the disfranchisement of negroes, but which, the secretary contended, will, if adopted, result in depriving thousands of white citizens, especially those of foreign birth or parentage, of the right to vote. In the course of his speech he said:

The Democratic platform admits that the party wishes and that the proposed amendment is meant to rob negroes of their constitutional rights; it denies that the disfranchisement of white men is either desired or intended; the admission is discreditably true, the denial more discreditably false. Every man who voted for the amendment in the legislature, every man who was prominent in its advocacy last Thursday, has sworn—some of them often—to uphold the Constitution of the United States. All of them have held (some hold now) offices of trust and profit, by virtue of that oath; yet we are told, and told without disguise or shame that they have all plotted together to defeat and overthrow what is owned to be the undoubted purpose and intent of that Constitution, and it is a boast that they can and will do this with impunity.

RESOURCEFUL POLICEMAN SURPRISES HOLD-UP MEN

Hides in Huckster's Wagon Anticipating an Attack and Greets Them With Warm Reception.

A second hold-up of a huckster in the Nine Mile run district of Swissvale, on Braddock avenue, was frustrated early yesterday morning by the foresight of Policeman Thomas Smith of the Swissvale police force, who chased two negroes, when they attempted to hold up an Italian huckster.

About 1:30 yesterday morning, Smith, who patrols the southern district of Swissvale, saw Philip Curtin of Roslyn street, Swissvale, a huckster, coming by the Wilkins plan and conceived the idea of lying in the bed of the wagon, and making the trip across the hollow. When almost at the same spot where the fatal hold-up of Thursday night occurred, two negroes ran from the shadow of the trees lining the road. One went to the horses' head and the other approached the wagon. The policeman raised up and as the light fell upon his uniform one of the negroes gave a cry of warning and both turned and fled, followed by shots from the policeman's revolver, none of which took effect.

GETS SPEAKERS FOR PITTSBURGH

Chairman Ford Picks His Men to Make Addresses in Allegheny County.

REPUBLICAN VICTORY ASSURED

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau,
Press Building,
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.

County Chairman Thomas J. Ford and Secretary Charles Muehlbronner spent the day here in the interest of the Republican campaign in Allegheny. This morning they had a talk with Senator Penrose and later with State Chairman W. R. Andrews. Chairman Ford asked the state chairman to furnish some speakers for meetings to be held in Pittsburgh, Allegheny and McKeesport.

Col. Andrews told Mr. Ford to make selections from the list. Attorney General Hampton L. Carson, Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart, St. Clair Mulholland and Robert Murphy of Johnstown were chosen. Secretary Muehlbronner said it was the intention to have five big mass meetings and that the first would be held about October 14 in Old City hall; the second, the old soldiers rally, in Allegheny the following week.

Chairman Ford told Col. Andrews that there was no doubt of the election of the Republican county ticket. So far as the state ticket is concerned it was his opinion that it would receive a record-making majority in Allegheny.

Senator Penrose, Israel W. Durham and Senator James P. McNichol unite in predicting victory for the Philadelphia Republican county ticket. They base this upon the fact that Philadelphia is a Republican city by a large majority and the additional fact that the candidates on the local county ticket are men whose political, professional and private character is above reproach. Then, too, they point to the fact that they have the advantage of organization, one that, despite all stress, has thus far remained practically intact.

Just as G. F. Sultzback Is About to Open Brokerage Office Authorities Step In.

George F. Sultzback was arrested at Fifth avenue and Smithfield street last night by Postoffice Inspector Frank A. O'Brien and Detective Cecil G. Rice, charged with using the United States mails to defraud. Sultzback, it is alleged, had fitted up offices in the Fitzsimons building, Fourth avenue, which he intended to open this morning as the Sanders Commission and Brokerage Company.

Sultzback is said to have been the manager of the Merchant Commission and Brokerage Company of St. Louis, under the name of G. Lewis Stern. He went from St. Louis to New York, where he was arrested a year ago and taken back to St. Louis and released after giving a $2,000 bond. It is alleged he defaulted and went to Canada, where he engaged in the brokerage business. Recently he came to Pittsburgh and the postoffice authorities located him and watched his movements until he was ready to open his offices. Sultzback's home is said to be at 2322 North Twentieth street, Philadelphia, and his father is reported to be wealthy.

SHARPSBURG AROUSED.

Largely Attended Indignation Meeting Protests Against Encroachment of Pennsylvania Road.

Sharpsburg's town hall was packed to the doors last night at the indignation meeting held to protest against the passing of an ordinance by the borough council granting the Pennsylvania railroad a right of way along the river frontage of the borough.

The meeting was called to order by Joseph Holzschuimer and William Miller was appointed secretary of the meeting. The sentiment of the gathering was expressed in the following resolutions:

That it is the sense of this meeting that the borough council take no action relative to the Pennsylvania railroad ordinance until the right of the Pennsylvania railroad to our streets is established by the courts, as we feel that the granting of this route would prove detrimental to the general welfare of the borough.

John Moorhead, Jr., of the Moorhead mills, stated that his firm had intended to build a large addition to their plant, but with the railroad taking their property it could not be built. J. Tice of the Patterson Supply Company stated they had intended to erect a large coal hoist along the river, which, if the ordinance was passed, could not be done.

GAS EXPLOSION KILLS SECRETARY AND CLERK

Cincinnati Court House Scene of Accident and County Employes Are Victims.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 4.—An explosion of accumulated gas in the Hamilton county court house this afternoon tore loose the massive stone porch at the second floor and, wrecking the rooms of the county commissioners, killed George Zimmerman, secretary of the board of county commissioners, and Russell Blair, clerk. Deputy Sheriff George Rennard and Janitor George Mahle were seriously injured, but not fatally.

Gas has been leaking in the court house for the past three years and behind a reservoir between the first and second floors. Patrick Walsh, superintendent of county buildings, started this afternoon to look for the leak, and his lighted match caused the explosion. One side of the building and much of the interior were wrecked, and the great portico is a formless heap of debris.

Blair was killed instantly and Zimmerman died on his way to the hospital. Several other officials besides those seriously injured were cut and bruised.

Blair was to have been married October 18. Two years ago he sat at a table where there were 13 seated, and he is the third of the party to die. Both victims were prominent in Republican politics.

BIG LUMBER DEAL CLOSED.

J. L. and S. A. Kendall Buy Out the Preston Lumber Company for $750,000.

J. L. Kendall, well known in Pittsburg as president of the H. C. Houston Lumber Company, yesterday in conjunction with S. A. Kendall of Myersdale, closed one of the largest lumber deals of this year. The Kendalls purchased for $750,000 the timber holdings, railroad, sawmill and store of the Preston Lumber Company and the town of Crellin in Garrett county, Md. The town contains 35 houses. The timber includes 25,000 acres of virgin land and the railroad is 32 miles long and is equipped with three locomotives and 50 cars and a log loader with a capacity of 100,000 feet of logs daily.

The purchasers will organize a new company to be called the Kendall Lumber Company, with a capital of $1,500,000. It will have a daily capacity of 250,000 feet of lumber.

VETERANS MAKE APPEAL TO VOTERS

Issue Circular Explaining Uses to Which Soldiers' Memorial Hall Will Be Put.

VERITABLE TEMPLE OF FAME

The committee of veterans of the civil war, empowered to act in connection with the success of the Soldiers' Memorial hall, have issued a circular to the voters of the county. The proposition will be submitted to the voters on the day of the regular election, Tuesday, November 7. All provisions of the act authorizing the erection of the hall at the cost of the county, save its ratification by the voters, have been complied with. The hall is to cost $1,250,000, and the circular tells of the purpose to which it is to be put. The circular states:

In compliance with law, the county commissioners will place the proposition for or against the erection of said memorial hall, at a cost not exceeding $1,250,000, at the bottom of the general ballot, separate and apart from the party columns thereon, having the words "for" and "against" with opposite squares for the cross marks of the voter. Therefore, in order to vote on this question a separate and distinct cross mark will be required from that made when voting for either of the party candidates.

No argument seems necessary to affirm the justice of the proposition to erect a memorial hall. The patriotic services and sacrifices of those from this county who, with their comrades in arms, gave life, limb or health to secure the Union victories that have resulted in such phenomenal prosperity to our entire country, are surely entitled to such recognition from the patriotic people of this county, who are always found among the foremost of those to do honor to deeds of glory.

The expenditure authorized by the act of assembly for this memorial will be fully met by a levy of 1½ mills upon the taxable valuation of the county, divided into three annual parts, amounting to only 50 cents a year on each $1,000 taxable property. Certainly a very small outlay for so worthy a public object.

The general plan proposed is to select a site easy of access by street cars and to erect a building thereon of such magnitude as will admit of a public auditorium large enough to accommodate conventions of national and state organizations; rotundas and galleries containing mural tablets on which will be inscribed the names, company, regiment, batteries or vessels of all those who enlisted from this county in 1861 to 1865, together with busts and statues of eminent soldiers; rooms for meetings of organizations of survivors of the war and kindred patriotic associations; commodious apartments for the proper display and preservation of relics and trophies of war; flags, stores, regimental and company histories, photographs and paintings.

This memorial, when completed and furnished, will form a public museum abounding in interest and patriotic history, and be to the people of Allegheny county for all time to come a veritable "temple of fame."

Upon the approval of the proposition by a majority vote, the county commissioners are authorized by the act to select a site, cause plans and specifications to be prepared by architects, and erect the memorial hall. That this will be done in a manner satisfactory and creditable to the people of this great county is beyond question.

This is but a general outline of the patriotic proposition as recommended by nine grand juries in session, unanimously indorsed by the survivors of the war, heartily favored by many of the largest taxpayers of the county, and approved by the public press and the conventions of all political parties of the county. The survivors, therefore, have no doubt as to the further approval of the project by the qualified voters of our county.

The committee comprises A. P. Burchfield, chairman, One Hundred and Twenty-third Pennsylvania volunteers; W. M. Cramp, secretary, One Hundred and Tenth Pennsylvania volunteers; Thomas G. Sample, One Hundred and Twenty-seventh Pennsylvania volunteers; H. H. Bengough, Seventy-eighth Pennsylvania volunteers; W. J. Patterson, Sixty-second Pennsylvania volunteers; the Rev. T. N. Boyle, One Hundred and Fortieth Pennsylvania volunteers; A. S. Miller, One Hundred and Twenty-third Pennsylvania volunteers; F. L. Blair, Sixty-first Pennsylvania volunteers; S. W. Hill, One Hundred and Fifty-fifth Pennsylvania volunteers; John Stulen, Ninetieth Pennsylvania volunteers; T. J. Hamilton, Twenty-eighth Pennsylvania volunteers; J. W. Boyd, Young's Pennsylvania Ind. Battery G.; Charles Davis, Tenth P. R. V. C.; J. Milton Ray, One Hundred and Fortieth Pennsylvania volunteers; C. G. Smith, One Hundred and Second Ohio volunteers; Alex. Dempster, One Hundred and Twenty-third Pennsylvania volunteers.

Davis Camp, Sons of Veterans, the original body of that organization, has adopted the following resolution:

Whereas, The purpose of this memorial is not only to pay a fitting tribute to the veterans of Allegheny county who served in the war for the suppression of the rebellion, a tribute to which they are entitled by the common consent of the grateful beneficiaries of their bravery and sacrifices, but the purpose also is to thereby perpetuate the history of the services of those heroic men so that the people of Allegheny county will for all time have before them a great object lesson in patriotism, love of country, and in unselfish, self-sacrificing devotion to the interests of the state and nation.

Therefore, Resolved, that we most heartily indorse the project for the Soldiers' Memorial hall and pledge our earnest support and assistance to the Soldiers' Memorial hall committee having in charge the campaign to secure the approval of the voters of the county.

Last Day of the Fashion Show.

While all the newest styles and all the up-to-the-moment touches of Fashion's wand are always to be seen here, it is only on state occasions that a grand exhibit is made.

Since Tuesday Fashion has been receiving here, and a royal time she has had of it. The richness of the various feminine garments brought out for Autumn and Winter, the radiant millinery, the handsome accompaniments of feminine dress, all have had a splendid showing.

After today the exhibit as a fashion show closes, the various articles contributing to the success of the display will be relegated to their regular places in the various departments.

We purposely held the exhibit over Thursday to accommodate the many people who will be in town today from various adjacent places. This Thursday promises to see the largest excursion to the Exposition so far this season, and in this connection we can only repeat our hearty invitation to all visitors to make this store their headquarters. Every convenience, especially that of checking and caring for all grips and packages. The Restaurant is open from 8 in the morning until 5:30 in the afternoon.

For today there will be many lines of seasonable goods for Autumn wear sold at underprices, especially in the women's Suit and Waist Departments. This news has already been dwelt upon, as well as other excellent items for today. As offers out of the ordinary several of the special features are referred to again this morning.

A Proposition Appealing Equally to Men and Women.

Two watch items which should add zest to the last opening day—specially priced watches as you will see at a glance. Good timekeepers, as we are ready to certify.

To Men—We will sell you an Elgin or Waltham seven-jewel modern movement, guaranteed for accurate time, fitted with an up-to-date, gold-filled, open face case, that is warranted to wear twenty years—a size suitable for man or youth. Regularly $12.00, special at $8.65

To Women—We will sell you a 7-jewel Elgin or Waltham modern movement, guaranteed for accurate time, fitted with an up-to-date, gold-filled, open face, that is warranted to wear twenty years—size about as large as a 25-cent piece. Regularly $18.00, specially priced at $12.00

Our showing of Bedroom Furniture is not to be excelled anywhere. The goods have been arranged after new ideas, so they can be inspected to best advantage. Every piece shows the best of workmanship, and was selected after most careful thought.

A low-priced suite consists of dresser, chiffonier, washstand and bed in oak or mission woods, complete for $45.75.

Dressers and Chiffoniers in mahogany, birdseye maple, white enamel, oak and mission, very temptingly priced.

A Great Line of $3.00 Umbrellas for $1.95 Each.

Pure silk umbrellas—not flimsy silk, such as some people offer when a special price is named, but a heavy, all silk, close woven taffeta with tape edge.

Styles for men and styles for women.

Fine natural handles, silk case and tassel.

Weeks of rain ahead of you, days of snow in the future—it is certain you will need an umbrella and you will not have a chance to get one at such a price as this again in a hurry.

Compare this with umbrellas about town that are offered at the same price, and note what a difference.

Silver Plated Nut and Fruit Bowls, $2.25.

A special lot of quadruple-plated silver bowls, eleven inches in diameter, burnished, with French gray daisy border.

We have frequently seen just such nut and fruit bowls as these sell for $4.00 and $5.00, and we assure you they are very superior articles for our price of $2.25.

A Sale of Dolls.

Couldn't offer anything more interesting to the children than dolls. Dolls are always getting broken, and new ones are ever welcome.

Relative to Our Optical Department.

Eyeglasses are no longer an acknowledgment of age. To be sure when one is well past middle age they are generally a necessity, but if you will look over any assemblage of people you will see just as many people in the heyday of life wearing glasses. It is foolish, indeed, to injure the eyes by abjuring glasses when glasses would improve the sight.

You see a person of uncertain years holding a paper off at arm's length to read. That person needs glasses. You see another with paper almost touching the nose. That person needs glasses. And here's another who squints, yes, squints, undignified but true, when reading. That person needs glasses.

Wouldn't any of these three classes look better if they were fitted with a first-class pair of eyeglasses? Think it over.

Eyeglasses from $1.00 to $10.00 a pair—and whether you pay $1.00 or $10.00 we assure you satisfaction.

Ho! for Football.

Certainly we encourage such a healthful and vigorous sport as Football—a great American game it is, as interesting to the beholder as to the participant.

We have all the essentials for playing it in the East Basement. We mention, for today's sale, a lot of Footballs which are very much under price.

A Quartet of Very Special Things.

Here are four numbers of interest only to women, and of such special interest that there should not be much delay in arriving in the store at an early hour:

$1.35 A PAIR FOR JOUVIN & CO.'S $1.75 KID GLOVES.

These are suede gloves, the Gold Medal Grade, 3-clasp lengths in all shades.
The price was never known to be cut before.
Simply a courtesy on the part of Messrs. Jouvin & Co., who allow us to quote this price for two days.
It is so unusual that women will buy these gloves in half dozen lots.
Of course you know Jouvin & Co. make the finest kid gloves in the whole world.

TODAY'S SALE OF OSTRICH PLUMES FOR LESS PRICES.

These are not seconds, bear that in mind—there is not one in the whole collection that has a blemish. The lengths are 13, 16, 18 and 20 inches. The color range includes gunmetal, plum, olive, navy, brown, pink, cell, pearl, lavender, peacock and black and white.

13-inch Plumes, fine wide heads, various colors as above—value $3.50—our special price $2.25

20-inch Plumes, extra wide, very showy and very handsome—value $7.00, our special price $5.00

WOMEN'S $1.50 SILK HOSE FOR $1.00 A PAIR.

FLANNEL WAISTINGS 25c A YD. KIND THAT SELLS FOR 75c, 85c, $1

For this singularly small price today we will offer Unshrinkable Imported Scotch and Silk Mixed Flannel Waistings.
It is a West Basement offering.
There are only 6,000 yards of these fine waisting flannels, and there are solid colors, fancy stripes and plaids.

Women's New $18.00 Raincoats for $1.00.

An Attractive Offer for Today.

Only fifty of them, so we won't undertake to say how long our offer will hold good. The fifty women who get these coats may count themselves fortunate.

Long coats for women are pre-eminently the popular wraps of the season. Raincoats are simply long coats made of material that has been rendered impervious to water. This two-fold attractiveness accounts for the eager way in which women are buying them.

The raincoats in question are of oxford gray, with new flat collar outlined with braid—front and back box pleated to hem. New style sleeves with latest cuff.

Women's Negligee Garments and Their Small Prices.

Today mention of some of the medium-priced garments for house wear. And don't think that because the prices are so modest that the garments have not merit, for you will find them as neat a lot of Dressing Sacques, Kimonos and Lounging Robes as you could wish to see. Second Floor, East.

Flannelette Dressing Sacques, made of good quality flannelette of striped design—finished with solid borders or combination, 50c.

Elderdown Dressing Sacques, splendid for cool mornings, shown in red, pink, blue, gray. Made with rolling collar—sleeves and entire edge finished with crochet edge—ribbon trimming at neck, 50c.

Lounging Robes (some people use them for bathrobes), made of crepe elderdown of very good quality—collar and rolling cuffs bound with satin—front fastened with two military ornaments—waist confined with cord and tassel. Various colors, such as red, light blue, old blue, pink and gray, $3.75. You will agree with us that these are full $5.50 value.

Flannelette Nightgowns—plain white flannelette of good quality or neat stripes—generously cut, 50c, $1.00, $1.25.

A Great Scoop in Boys' Double-Breasted Suits.

$8, $9 and $10 Suits for $6.

Fourteen styles to choose from in fancy cheviots and worsteds

Rarely an opportunity of this kind presents itself so early in the season. We are glad to have you reap the benefit. No need to go into detail as to the kind of clothing we sell. No better boys' clothing is made, and when we say all wool we mean all wool. Every suit in this lot is up to the J. H. Co. standard; not old junk, nor is it made with the seams sewed together with cotton, or we might say glued together; the best and strongest grade of silk is used on all seams.

Splendid value is shown in our $5.00 suits, and you will find $6.00 and $6.50 values in this showing.

The Vogue of Genuine Coral.

A decided improvement will be made in the vicinity of Schenley park by the proposed alteration in the route of the Junction railroad. It is probable the railroad may be benefited to the extent of saving a large bill of operating expenses, but the city will be benefited more. The acquisition of a boulevard is an item of consequence, but that is hardly half of the advantage to the public.

The commission appointed to investigate the running of the government printing office, with a view to reduction in the operating expenses, is expected to get down to work in a day or two. The expressed belief of the commission that present annual expenses are $1,000,000 greater than necessary, illustrates the need for the searching inquiry that will no doubt be conducted.

President Roosevelt is expected, on his tour of the south, to give expression to his views on many matters of national policy. This is natural. The most remarkable thing in connection with the presidential journey is the preparation the south is making to welcome the chief executive and to hear what he has to say. It will be no surprise if the south is found supporting the president's policies in the coming session.

It is no part of the duty of county detectives to police city streets, but there will be general satisfaction that District Attorney Stewart has ordered them to assist the police in the vicinity of their headquarters. The numerous crimes and disturbances in that quarter demand extraordinary measures, the police being apparently unable or unwilling to give adequate protection. Elsewhere in the city, however, there can be no such recourse.

Dr. D. K. Pearsons, Chicago philanthropist, is the latest defender of John D. Rockefeller. Dr. Pearsons is vigorous about it, too, and improves the opportunity to express his opinion in general about the "socialist clamor," the drones of society, and the fellows who yell because they are not as successful as men who have given their time and energy to doing something useful. The doctor is not to be classed as a patient and silent sufferer, anyway.

Another advance of 5 cents a barrel has been made in the price of oil. It makes a welcome addition to the incomes of producers in Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia. Some people persist in looking for an occult motive and in ignoring the fact that production has been checked in the Baku district to the amount of probably 40,000,000 barrels. When it is remembered the total stocks of Pennsylvania oil above ground aggregate far less than that amount, there is no great mystery about the market.

City Controller Larkin's organ quotes him as saying: "I will have something hot for Saturday night's meeting." Mr. Larkin might have said his oratory would be as radiant and torrid as a glory hole when the pipe is inserted to gather molten glass, and he would have been just as truthful. And when a man is acting as his own press agent, what is the use of mincing a word or two? The question is, however, what will Larkin talk about at the Citizens meeting? Will he warm up for Plummer for state treasurer, or is he going to give a second heat to a 10-mill rate in his alembic?

Our college presidents have been giving some remarkably sensible advice to their students of late. There seems to be a growing disposition on the part of the higher education to concern itself with practical problems of daily living. The heads of Columbia and Yale have recently spoken in no uncertain terms concerning the glaring dishonesty which has been exposed in high places. President Charles W. Eliot of Harvard follows up the good work with a forceful address on the subject of clean living. The boys just entering college are admonished to "act toward all women as though you were going to marry some pure woman inside of a month." The modern college has a mission aside from the purely intellectual one.

The Memorial Hall.

An appeal is made to voters in behalf of the Soldiers' Memorial hall by the commission in charge. This appeal is sure to be answered at the polls. The project has been approved by successive grand juries and the courts and will be approved by the people. The idea of building a hall as a memorial to the heroes who have fought the nation's battles is one that naturally commends itself. It is not merely ornamental and commemorative, as a marble shaft would be, but in addition is useful. It will afford a place of safe keeping for the trophies of war and treasures of the veterans; assembly rooms for the soldiers' organizations, and comprise a hall for public meetings.

This tribute to the heroes of Allegheny county will put a very light tax on the citizens of the county—one they can very well afford to pay in recognition of services that were priceless. It is a belated tribute of which every citizen may justly be proud after it is completed.

The People of Porto Rico.

Col. Willis Sweet, who recently resigned the office of attorney general of Porto Rico, has returned full of enthusiasm regarding that island's million or so of happy inhabitants. In his opinion, Porto Ricans will make admirable citizens, and he is hoping for early annexation as a state of the union. Since the United States government assumed the role of protector the people of Porto Rico have made wonderful strides along educational lines. A large proportion of the inhabitants speak English with tolerable fluency and the percentage of illiterates is surprisingly small. The moral atmosphere is illustrated by the manner in which the last election was conducted. There were 150,000 votes cast, without a particle of disorder in any part of the island, which would be a decidedly new record for our own country. The industrial outlook in Porto Rico is encouraging: sugar, tobacco and fruit, of course, being the staples. Orange growers from Florida have also established what promises to be a flourishing industry, the soil and climate being particularly advantageous.

In many respects the Porto Ricans set an excellent example to their neighbors of Cuba, many of whom are more intent upon stirring up political trouble than upon earning an honest living. The Porto Ricans are prosperous because of their industry and enterprise. Their reported desire to become a real part of the United States is evidence of their enlightenment, even though the fulfillment of that desire is still a long way off.

The Man Comes First.

It is generally agreed that Japan's victories in the war recently ended were due more to the personnel, character and spirit of her soldiers and sailors than to the admirable equipment of her battleships and land forces. Rear Admiral John C. Watson, retired, who has just returned from a tour of investigation in Europe, emphasizes this matter of personnel as the foundation of naval efficiency. Great Britain recently awakened to the marked physical decadence in the average naval recruit, and a similar condition confronts other European nations. In the opinion of Rear Admiral Watson, "It is remarkable that so many years should have elapsed after the abolition of sail power before it was realized that the modern armorclad provides an inefficient substitute for the hardy muscular development of the older seamanship. The modern man-o'-war's-man has received a mental schooling that more or less neglects the requirements of physical development and stamina."

In view of the results which Rear Admiral Watson declares to be so much desired, it would seem the part of wisdom to institute a course of physical training in the United States navy. The German army has long enjoyed such instruction, which it is proposed to extend to the navy as well. Expensive armament avails nothing without men of muscle, nerve and stamina behind it. Daily physical exercise, especially adapted to their needs, will give us the right kind of men for our battleships. Cruising on sailships will not hurt.

Labor Loses a Battle.

Chicago is the city of strikes, but, strange to say, it is not the scene of the latest and most interesting one to be chronicled in the public press. Sock Center, Minnesota, until the other day possessed the only scholars' labor union in the country. It was the idea of a boy whose father held the office of president of a local union of bricklayers, and was organized after the same fashion, the principal rule of the order being that no member was to work overtime. Any boy ordered to "stay after school" for extra work was to refuse, with the threat that his fellow members would back him up and go on strike if this were insisted upon. Any member who voluntarily offered to perform extra work or stay after hours was to be expelled from the order. A speedy opportunity of testing the potency of the organization presented itself. No less a personage than the organizer of the union himself was ordered to stay after school and work some problems on which he had "flunked" in class. His defiance was instant and dramatic. "I refuse," he exclaimed. "Boys, let's all strike!"

But the teacher struck first. He used a stout hickory club, and the honorable president of the scholars' labor union was the first to fall. The chief walking delegate was the next victim, and the remaining members were ready by this time to arbitrate their differences. Capital had crushed labor under its iron heel.

Here is a case for the demagogues, but, as the schoolboy has no vote, he will have to wait until he is 21 to have his wrongs redressed, and by that time he will probably have forgotten all about them.

More Inadvertences.

Admitting the falsity of its statement that on deposits in "active" banks the state "receives no interest whatsoever," the Post says it was an "inadvertence." There is no way to prove it was not an inadvertence, but it is pertinent to say if the state treasury was guilty of similar "inadvertence" in its bookkeeping there would be cause for public complaint, which now there is not. This "inadvertence" approximates $28,000 a year in the income of the state. The people of this great state have cause to congratulate themselves the Post is not state treasurer. No reply is necessary to the billingsgate used by the Post in its effort to conceal the admission of its falsehood.

It is pertinent, however, to point out a few more "inadvertences" in the Post's apologetic article. Referring to the "active" banks, it says:

As we stated in our previous editorial, this amount probably varies but little throughout the year, the money paid out being constantly replaced by new receipts. For all practical purposes the great bulk of the money belonging to the state in these banks is a time deposit, and many banks would gladly pay 4 per cent for it. Even regarded as a time deposit it would bring 2 per cent.

Here is one obvious inadvertence and a misstatement. The money in the active banks is no more a time deposit than the Post's daily balances on which it probably receives 2 per cent. Again the Post says:

The Gazette, with characteristic insincerity, neglected to take any exception to our contention that the payment of only 2 per cent interest per annum on the two-thirds of $10,000,000 deposited on time in the favored banks put the latter under obligations to the gang leaders and enabled them to demand favors for themselves and for Republican campaign funds. If the state money thus deposited were private funds instead of public funds it would draw 4 per cent instead of 2 per cent.

The Gazette cannot plead guilty to "insincerity" because it "neglected to take any exception to our contention," etc. It does take exception to that contention. It is true the private depositor may obtain 4 per cent on time deposits and 2 per cent on daily balances, but he could not do so if he required the bank to give bond in double the amount for the security of his deposits. It is doubtful if any bank in this city would accept the deposits of the Post with the bond requirement attached, or pay on them any rate of interest.

If the Post believes a higher rate of interest should be paid on deposits of public funds it might carry on a more profitable propaganda here, at home, by demanding a new ordinance from the Pittsburgh councils for the payment of a higher rate by the city depositories. Councils are in session fortnightly, while the Pennsylvania legislature does not meet until January, 1907. There is not even a legislature to be elected this year. The controversy is over the election of a state treasurer, who will be governed by the act of June 15, 1897. Mr. J. Lee Plummer, we know, will obey that law to the letter, and if William H. Berry has any idea of doing differently, that will prove another supreme reason for the defeat that is coming to him in November.

QUIET OBSERVATIONS ON WAYS OF WORLD

Are the Institutions of This Country to Be Run by Women?

By ERASMUS WILSON.

Give a woman an ell and she'll get the rest of it, be sure of that.

Some folks are afraid, or think they are, that the various institutions in this country will eventually be run by the rowdy element.

There are a lot of grafters, 'tis true; but hardly more than in times past. This being a billion-dollar age, everything is being done on a much larger scale than ever before, not excepting grafting.

It will do no good to get scared and rush around crying mad dog, or graft, or corruption. Be decent and square yourself, and all will be well.

* * *

Women are born agitators; at least most agitators are born women.

This is all right, even if some agitators do become perniciously active. They stir things up and leave them for men to settle. Strange as it may seem, women do not settle many questions.

As you may know, if you are married, one woman can cut out more work than three men can do. And if the work is not done promptly, and in her way, she may go on the war path, take up the agitator's wand, or attempt to organize a forlorn-hope-band that will do the work in a jiffy and put the man to shame.

Without just such agitators men would become lazy and indifferent, and maybe lapse into barbarians.

* * *

What do you think of this?

Prof. Chamberlain of Clark university has figured out that women have a whole lot more ability than men. Following is his little list:

"As an actor she has greater ability and more frequently shows it.

"She is noticeably better in adaptability.

"She is much more charitable—in money matters.

"Under reasonable opportunities she is more gifted at diplomacy.

"She has greater genius in politics.

"They more commonly have executive ability.

"Her hearing is more acute.

"Her imagination is greater.

"Her intuitions are greater.

"Her memory is better.

"Her patience is greater.

"Her perceptions are more rapid.

"She has greater religious devotion.

"Her instinct for sacrifice is greater.

"She bears pain more heroically.

"Her sympathy is greater.

"She has greater tact.

"She has more acute taste.

"She has greater vitality.

"She has more fluency in the lower forms of speech."

* * *

Now, what do you think of that!

And what do you think of that man? Would a typical American woman take him for a husband if she could get some one else?

Women, as a rule, are just contrary enough to prefer men who think them a little weak and lacking more or less in ability to do great things.

There is no doubt that most men who have accomplished great things were stirred up to it, or held up and encouraged by women while doing the work.

Great has been the influence of women over men who have done much to shape the morals, the politics, and the intelligence of the world, but that doesn't mean that she could have done it.

Pascal once said: "If the nose of Cleopatra had been half an inch shorter, the whole face of the earth would have been changed."

And Pascal was right.

* * *

You may wonder how the nose of Cleopatra could have affected the whole earth so profoundly.

In the first place, if her nose had not been as it was she wouldn't have been an Egyptian in taste and ambition. And in the second place, Marc Antony wouldn't have so loved her with a pug nose as to abandon his schemes for subjugating the world.

There is no telling what would have happened had not this bold, ambitious young man fallen heels over head in love with the fascinating and powerful queen of the Egyptians. No doubt the political map of the world would be quite different from what it is.

Pascal evidently referred to the political face of the earth; and yet had Cleopatra's nose not been as it was, the laws of nature would have been different from what they are, and that would have meant a different arrangement of matter.

* * *

Who can tell, or even imagine, what this world would have been like had not Mother Eve gotten up a flirtation with Satan.

It may have been her beauty that caught the eye of the powerful prince of darkness, just as it was the beauty of Cleopatra that caught and enthralled the mighty prince of the Roman world.

Eve must have been beautiful, for does not John Milton say that Adam

"Hung over her enamor'd, and beheld
Beauty, which, whether waking or asleep,
Shot forth peculiar graces."

And didn't Adam, according to Milton, exclaim "My latest found, heaven's last, best gift, my ever new delight?"

And yet, didn't Eve, in "naked beauty more adorn'd, more lovely than Pandora," listen to Satan as he, squat like a toad, croaked in her too willing ear?

What a contradiction is woman!

O woman! lovely woman! Nature made thee
To temper man: we had been brutes without you.
Angels are painted fair, to look like you;
There's in you all that we believe of heaven—
Amazing brightness, purity, and truth,

What mighty ills have not been done by woman?
Who was't betrayed the Capitol?—A woman!
Who was the cause of a long, ten years' war,
And laid at last old Troy in ashes?—Woman!
Destructive, damnable, deceitful woman!

CRITICS OBJECT TO THE ANGELS' FACES

Sculptors Changing the Statues That Adorn the Belmont Memorial Chapel.

By FRANK A. PARKER.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 4—Sculptors have begun work changing the faces of the two angels that adorn the east end of the Belmont Memorial chapel of the Cathedral of St. John, the Divine, on Morningside Heights. This is the result of the protests of the clergymen who were delegates to the convention of the Protestant Episcopal church recently in session here. And when the work is finished the figures will represent men angels, which, according to the critical clergymen, they should be, as the two figures are supposed to represent St. Gabriel, the Annunciation and St. Michael, the Resurrection.

The sculptor, Guntzen Mothe-Borglun, who executed the work, wouldn't admit today that he took issue with his critics. "I feel that my studies in biblical tradition have been slighted," he said, "but I am willing to represent the two periods in Christ's life just as my critics suggest. Still I must insist that the ancient painters and sculptors always represented the angels in female form, and I feel that in representing the two angels in beauty of countenance and chastity of pose I have followed in the footsteps of all that is high and recognized in ecclesiastical art. But in spite of this I am ready to amend the soft, beautiful curves to the sterner outlines of the other sex."

Bon Voyage for Mr. Redmond.

Among the passengers who sailed for Europe today on the Oceanic was the Hon. William Redmond, Irish leader in the house of commons. A large deputation of the Irish National league was down at the pier to wish Redmond a fair voyage. Mr Redmond praised the great enterprise of America. He had enjoyed every moment of his visit and was pleased with the big success of the Irish industrial fair in the Madison Square garden, which he visited last night. He said that he had gained much information that would be of value to him on his return.

Divorce Day Brings a Surprise.

Justice Davis, sitting in the "bargain divorce court" today, instituted a new rule which will tend to make this weekly matinee less of a go-as-you-please. There were 49 undefended matrimonial actions on the call calendar, and in every case where an adjournment was asked for a day or a week, Justice Davis set it back to November 8, while those cases in which no lawyers answered were called and put off for three months. Justice Davis intimated that cases on the calendar for a third time and not ready would be dismissed. Only 13 cases were called to a hearing.

Still, who for 50 years had navigated the oyster sloop Nellie, is dead in his 74th year. He lived as his forefathers had lived before him—in the small domain on his own craft, where he was supreme. His father was master of a sloop that sailed the East river, but when the oyster fleet was assigned to North river berths "Old Jack" was the first to turn the Battery.

Hoke Smith Comes to Town.

The Hon. Hoke Smith of Atlanta, Ga., is in the city today. He is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor of Georgia next year, and his canvas, which has been going on for months, has been more or less dramatic. Mr. Smith said today: "Yes, it is true that I am a candidate for governor of Georgia, but I am making a very modest campaign. I have delivered a few speeches here and there when called upon, that is all." Mr. Smith is here to attend a meeting of the trustees of the Peabody educational fund.

Sanitary Bakeshops Needed.

Summary action is about to be taken by the board of health to render many alleged unhealthy bakeshops completely sanitary. This has been brought about by the statements of the union bakers in the recent strike that unsanitary conditions were prevalent in many shops. An investigation already made has disclosed that the number of consumptives among bakers is much lower than had been expected. Out of about 2,600 shops in the city it is asserted that 400 are in bad shape.

Next Election Will Cost More.

There has been a large increase in the number of election districts in this city and state this year. The total number of districts in the state is now 4,967. The total for the city is 1,948, an increase of nearly 400 over last year. The city districts are divided as follows: New York county, 1,115; Kings, 680; Queens, 109; Richmond, 43. This large increase in the number of election districts will greatly increase the cost of elections.

More Money Needed for Schools, Also.

Henry N. Tifft, president of the board of education, asked the board of estimate today for an increase of $3,125,622 13, or a total appropriation of $25,126,040 90. He explained that about half the increase was for the general and half for the special fund, and that it was made necessary by the mandatory increases in salaries, and the need of new teachers to furnish the increased number of pupils.

"Gentlemen, What Will You Have?"

Democrats at Newark sang a song of which the following is a part:

"Pattison! Pattison!
He had Herrick on the run
Ere the campaign had begun!
Pattison! Pattison!
Get your toddy!
Everybody!
Pattison!"

It is understood the song is dedicated to Perley Baker of the Anti-Saloon league.—Youngstown Telegram.

SOME GOOD STORIES OF PITH AND MOMENT

Gossipy Chat and Anecdote of Entertaining and Instructive Character.

A story is told of a Kansas veteran at the Grand Army of the Republic reunion in Denver, who went into a saloon and bought a pint of whisky. When he had paid for it and the bartender had handed it to him, he leaned over and whispered in the bartender's ear: "Where will I find a good place to drink it?" "Right here," answered the barkeep. "No, no," replied the Kansas. "I'm from Kansas, and it won't taste right unless I drink it in the dark."—Kansas City Times.

Two Apologies.

Col. L. B. Peake, who was for a long period editor and publisher of the Woonsocket Reporter, was responsible for many quaint sayings and delicious bon-mots. Upon one occasion he attended a crowded reception in Harris hall, and, staying quite late, was surprised to find his hat had been taken and a very poor substitute left in its stead. The following night he called the attention of his readers to the fact in the following manner: "The gentleman who inadvertently took our new silk tile and left a very inferior article in its place will do us infinite kindness by returning ours. He will receive our warmest thanks and two apologies—an apology for the trouble we have given him, and the apology for a hat he has left us."—Boston Herald.

Showing the New Yorker.

"There's a wonderful hot spring that bubbles up in the ocean a mile off Catalina island," remarked Percival S. Burkhardt, a Poughkeepsie banker, as he leaned over the counter at the St. Francis. "A boiling hot spring right out in the ocean seems almost incredible, and I wouldn't have believed it if I hadn't seen it with my eyes and dipped my fingers into the almost scalding water. I was out trolling for yellowtail one day in a gasoline launch, when the boatman told me about the wonderful spring. We were not very far from it, so we cruised around and found it, and as we passed over it he dipped a bucket of water out of the ocean that was scalding hot. It was one of the most wonderful experiences of the many I have had in California, and I wouldn't have missed it for a great deal."

"Yes, I had that game played on me once," remarked Chief Clerk McDermott, rather carelessly.

"I don't understand you," declared the Poughkeepsie banker.

"You were out in a gasoline launch?"

"Exactly."

"And the boatman held the bucket over the stern of the boat for several minutes while getting his bearings from the land marks on shore before dipping up the hot water?"

"Yes, I think he did."

"I thought so. The hot water came from the exhaust pipe of the gas engine."

"Well, I'll be jiggered!"—San Francisco Chronicle.

A Lesson to Remember.

The protest against vaccination in the schools at Kansas City recalls an actual occurrence at Topeka a few years ago. It had been required by law that all school children in a certain district be vaccinated. One day a small boy brought a note to his teacher from his mother, which read: "Miss Smith: I did not have Jack vaccinated. I will tell you the reason. When I was a child I was vaccinated, and it proved fatal."—Kansas City Journal.

His Father's Definition.

A Detroit paper assumes the responsibility for this:

A Detroit school teacher, even so early in the term, has met with one of those charming experiences which sometimes fall to the lot of those who instruct the foreign youth of Detroit. She had read a sentence involving the use of the word "disarrange" and she asked for volunteers to define the expression.

At first no one answered, but finally a little Italian on the middle seat raised his hand.

"It have—a something to do with a leetle stove," suggested Nicolo, firmly.

"Oh! no, dear," said the teacher, "it has nothing to do with anything of the kind. What makes you think it has?"

"My fadder," asserted Nicolo, with confidence, "he have a leetle stove and every morning he say: 'Damn dis-a range.'"

The Bait Don't Take.

We do not recall in American political history a precedent for the remarkable proposition made by Senator Gorman to his party convention in Maryland. It was in the nature of a promise with a threat as an alternative. Having succeeded in securing from his party approval of the constitutional amendment disfranchising most of the relatively small proportion of the negroes in the state, he declared that if that amendment were adopted at the coming election he would agree "never to seek place" and would "die a happy man." On the other hand, if the amendment were defeated "I am," he announced, "with you as long as I live." Mr. Gorman apparently reasoned that the hope of getting rid of him would induce his numerous opponents in the party to vote with him this time. They do not take the bait.—New York Times (Dem.)

BLIGHTED BOYHOOD OF PA.

I wish I knew what my pa knew
When he was just as old as me;
He'd read the Bible through and through
And when it come to workin'—gee!
Why, he says that when he was 10
He hardly ever thought of play,
But took his place behind the mop
And did what they did every day.
He drove his father's team to town
And hauled the grist home from the mill,
And in the evening he'd set down
And learn his lessons and keep still.

It makes me sorry for poor pa
To think that he was treated so;
Sometimes it almost seems that ma
Don't more than half believe him though,
But once when he was tellin' me
About the fun he never had
And how he worked, I thought that she
Would cry, because she looked so sad.
And then she said she wished that they'd
Of let him sow his oats before
He got growed up, and pa he stayed
Up stairs that night, and kicked the door

Last summer, down at grandpa's, where
They used to make pa work so hard,
They told me how he'd rig and tear
Around the place, and in the yard
There was a tree, where grandma said
He used to practice circus tricks—
All day till it was time for bed
It seemed as though they'd six old Nicks
Around there always rairin' Ned—
But grandpa come and put his hand
Down kind of softly on my head
And said that I would understand—
He winked at grandma and he smiled—
Some say, when I would have a child.

STORIES FOUND IN THE LOBBIES

Interesting Happenings Concerning the People Who Are Traveling.

"The teacher of today is more alive than ever before in the history of education," said Howard R. Myers, manager for Pennsylvania in the business of a large New York educational publishing house, who is registered at the Hotel Colonial. "I have been made to wonder at the interest taken by the public school teachers in matters pertaining to the teaching profession. Even if a young man or woman teaches for a few years only, there is a wide-awake enthusiasm that responds much good for the education of American youth and for the betterment of teaching methods. Teachers want to know what success other teachers have had or are having with certain methods and principles. Pittsburgh teachers I have found to be especially interested in all that goes to make up the best in education. The spirit of the city itself seems to enter into the teaching profession. I have almost completed a tour of all of the states of this city, and if a better class of teachers can be found anywhere, the city having them under its farther in advance in education than is appreciated even by those in direct touch with them."

Mr. Myers knows the teaching profession from an active experience of several years, the last service in the profession being as superintendent of the Hollidaysburg public schools. His headquarters are at Altoona.

The Effort Has Failed.

The Telegraph believes that the people of Philadelphia are the best judges of their own affairs. Which, in view of the large preponderance of Republicans in that city, is equivalent to saying that the Republicans of Philadelphia are fully competent to determine all matters which relate wholly to the conduct of the affairs of that city. The people of the state-at-large are concerned in the political squabble in Philadelphia only as interested spectators. The contest between the regular Republican organization and the City party is on local issues for local offices. The result will not involve important interests of other counties. The Telegraph is pleased to note that this is the view generally held by Republican newspapers throughout the state. The effort to involve the entire commonwealth in the Philadelphia mixup has failed.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

Tomatoes That Are Tomatoes.

For several years he has cultivated big ones, saving the seed from the largest specimens for use the next year. People who see the result say it is most extraordinary.—Connellsville Courier.

MANY RUSSIANS BECOME CITIZENS

English-Speaking Aliens Likewise Show Haste to Get Naturalization Papers.

SOME HAVE BANK ACCOUNTS

Russians and English-speaking immigrants in Pittsburgh are making a wild rush to become American citizens. For two weeks the government building has been crowded with applicants for naturalization. Saturday will be the last call for those who want to vote at the November election.

Col. W. T. Lindsay, clerk of the United States court, has made some interesting observations among his applicants this year. They are fewer in number than usually appears before election times, but the standards of the applicants is improved. This fact is only encouraging in a degree. Col. Lindsay said:

"Half of the applicants for naturalization have money in bank, and more than one-fourth have commenced to buy homes. This is an indication of a desire on the part of foreigners to avail themselves of the privileges of citizenship and at the same time to share the responsibilities which are attached to the oath which is administered.

"Pathetic scenes are often witnessed when these people come in. It means an event in their lives. They have heard the call of freedom from far across the seas. They come here to shake off the bonds which have bound them to the soil. They have come with fairly good educations. They have lost no chance to acquire a knowledge of English, and as a class they are among our brightest applicants.

"While the better portion of our applicants have money in bank and a good number have commenced buying homes and the majority have been here over 10 years, it cannot be said that this feature is especially encouraging. When Uncle Sam extends his hand of welcome to the alien, it is with the understanding that the foreigner comes here to behave himself and build a home. It is un-American for him to save a hoard and go back home with it. It means more for us if immigrants file their first papers as soon as they have been here the required length of time. In five years they may become citizens if thy fill the other qualifications. It shows better faith for our friends from across the sea to become citizens immediately upon the expiration of the time limit of five years."

A big class of Italians yesterday failed to make good answers and all were dismissed.

SUES BUSINESS AGENT.

Maj. Sibert Alleges Michael Galentine Trespassed on Government Property to Influence Workmen.

Through the arrest of Michael Galentine, business agent of the local association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, the United States courts will have to decide the right of labor unions to obstruct government work. The information on which Galentine was arrested, was made by Maj. W. L. Sibert, engineer, in charge of local river improvements, who charges that Galentine trespassed on government property at lock No. 2 in the Monongahela river.

It is alleged that material for the work was being supplied by the American Bridge Company and that the bridge company had a contract to do certain work on the dam. The labor union declared a strike against the bridge company and the men working on the dam quit. Major Sibert notified officers of the labor union that the contract had been annulled, because time for the work had expired and that the government proposed to finish the work and desired members of the union who had been working on the dam to return.

The union notified its members not to work on the dam. Maj. Sibert then hired a number of men and on September 27, it is alleged, Galentine went on government property and induced 10 out of 12 men to quit.

Maj. Sibert yesterday stated he intends to show by this case that the government is not to be trifled with.

TALKS ON PORTO RICO.

Judge McKenna Delivers an Interesting Address at a Meeting of the Humane Society.

Judge Charles F. McKenna, of the Federal court of Porto Rico, delivered an interesting address at the weekly meeting of the Western Pennsylvania Humane society, yesterday afternoon. Judge McKenna, who was one of the attorneys for the society before being appointed to the bench, said that since Porto Rico has come under the jurisdiction of the United States, laws have been enacted along the same lines as the humane laws of this country.

He stated three humane societies have been established and all have active agents and number among their members the most prominent people of the island. He also told of the public schools in the island and said the people are beginning to observe the holidays celebrated in the United States. Porto Ricans, he said, have a kindly feeling toward this country.

At the business meeting, President Joseph P. Walter, Superintendent J. S. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Mason and Mrs. Richard Hardy were elected delegates to represent the society at the American Humane association convention, to be held in Philadelphia on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

THREE WOULD HANDLE MAILS.

Wilmerding Is the Scene of Warm Contest for Postmastership.

A nice three-corned fight has developed in the contest for appointment as postmaster of Wilmerding. The airbrake company figures prominently in the case of two candidates, James P. Hillman and Burgess R. J. Pounds. Hillman is an old Westinghouse Airbrake company employe, and also a veteran of the civil war. Burgess Pounds is now connected with the general offices of the Airbrake company. He was a Republican until the recent election, when he went over to the Citizens party.

But while these two are contesting for the office, the present postmaster, H. D. Patch, is in possession, and with the backing of the Republican organization and a good record for two terms, he believes he stands the best chance for continuing in his position after his second term expires next June.

FRESH TROUBLES IN FUSION RANKS

Democrats Oust Secretary Carnegie and Lorenzo Walks Out of Citizens Meeting.

WANT WILLOCK AS CHAIRMAN

Fresh troubles broke out yesterday within the Citizens and Democratic organizations. The Democratic executive committee met last night at headquarters and discharged from its service, B. J. Carnegie, of the Thirty-second ward, secretary of the committee. Mr. Carnegie was formerly the candidate of the Citizens-Democratic ticket in the Thirty-second ward for common council. While his fate was being determined in secret session last night by the committee, Mr. Carnegie sat outside in a very dejected frame of mind.

"Yes, my name is Carnegie," he said. "I am the man who ran for council in the Thirty-second ward with Soffel, and Mayor Hays licked us bad. Yes, I understand they have elected J. F. O'Toole, of the West End, for my place. I am waiting to see Commissioner Clark about it."

Further evidence of disruption in the fusion ranks in the Thirty-second ward was shown at the meeting of the ward chairmen of the Citizens party, who were in session at the same time in Third avenue, only a few doors from the Democratic headquarters. The chairman of every Citizens ward committee in the city had been notified to attend and receive the poll books and instructions. Not more than half of the wards were represented.

Lorenzo Walks Out of Meeting.

Frank Lorenzo, formerly an assistant superintendent of the bureau of highways and sewers, was present to represent the Thirty-second ward. The chairman of the Thirty-second ward organization was formerly Isaac Kiefer, but he apparently had lost interest in his job and failed to put in an appearance last night. When the wards were called in order the Thirty-second ward was passed and Lorenzo demanded the reason. He was informed that Kiefer was still chairman. Lorenzo got angry and walked out of the meeting. County Chairman W. S. Woods and Secretary James W. Clark were present last night, but Director Clark did the drilling, Chairman Woods sitting back and taking notes.

The Democrats announced last night that Judge Christopher Magee had been appointed chairman of the finance committee and that J. F. O'Toole had been elected chairman of the campaign committee. O'Toole will act in the double capacity of chairman of the campaign committee and as secretary of the executive committee, from which Mr. Carnegie was ousted.

Bigelow Collects Funds.

Two men yesterday declined to serve on the Democratic committee of meetings and speakers, of which F. X. Barr, candidate for clerk of courts, is chairman. They are Attorneys George W. Acklin and T. H. Davis. Mr. Acklin said he was not in favor of the fusion movement. He said the fusion movement was only favored by a few Democrats who have been successful in obtaining offices. Mr. Davis said he would support the Republican ticket.

Director Bigelow is not only bossing the Citizens party campaign, but he is also collecting the campaign funds. "The corporations, he says, will be contributors. Asked on this score the other day, he replied:

"There will be plenty of money. Do you know that people have not been educated right in giving?"

"Do you educate them on the principle of tithes, director?"

"I size a man up for what he can stand and then he pays what I ask." Mr. Bigelow cited an instance when he was raising funds for the public reception to the Tenth regiment, when he returned a check to a contributor and asked him to treble the amount, which was done.

Members of the Democratic executive committee announced last night that Controller Larkin had been dropped as chairman of the meeting at Old City hall for Saturday night, and that an effort was being made by Director Bigelow to get James H. Willock, the banker, to act as chairman. It was stated last night that Mr. Willock had not yet agreed to accept.

"Bigelow will not elect either his county ticket this fall nor his candidate for mayor next February," said W. S. Gurley yesterday. "The Republican ticket will win in November in a walk, and if some good man like John Eaton, president of the chamber of commerce, is nominated for mayor, he will be elected hands down."

TRIO OF TRAINMEN ARE VICTIMS OF SAD FATE

Distresssing Accident Cuts Short the Career of a Young Lake Erie Fireman.

Two railroad firemen met distressing mishaps yesterday. One is dead and the other is likely to die. Both were injured by being struck by obstructions along the track while at their posts of duty. The dead man is John C. Roseborough, who had just passed the examination which was to qualify him to serve as an engineer on the fast trains on the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad. He was combing down the coal on the tender while coming from McKees Rocks yesterday afternoon and was struck on the head by a projection from a bridge at Saw Mill run. His skull was fractured and he was found dead on his engine by a car cleaner in the Lake Erie station at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was 31 years of age and lived in McKees Rocks.

About the same hour John Dougherty, aged 13, a fireman on a Panhandle yard engine, was leaning out of the window of his cab while crossing the street at Second avenue. He was struck on the head by a post and seriously injured. His condition was discovered by his engineer while the train was crossing the Panhandle bridge. He was taken to Mercy hospital.

Frank Dye, aged 29, of Sheraden, was killed by falling from a freight train through a trestle near Walkers Mills yesterday afternoon. Dye was a brakeman and lived with J. E. Over in Glen Mawr avenue, Sheraden, and leaves a widow, the couple having been married only four months ago.

As the result of a head-on collision between a freight and work train on the Montour railroad at Scotts siding, 10 miles from Coraopolis at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, Robert Brand, aged 22, a fireman on the work train, was killed. Brand's father, a trainmaster on the road, was in the cab of the engine of the coal train and witnessed the accident. He was, however, unable to render any aid to his son. The young man lived at Coraopolis.

The Death Roll

The Rev. Benjamin Knepper.

CONNELLSVILLE, Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The Rev. Benjamin Knepper, aged 82 years, the oldest minister in the Pittsburgh synod of the Reformed church and probably the oldest pastor of that denomination in the United States, died last night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Anna M. Heller, wife of the Rev. A. J. Heller, D. D., pastor of the Green Street Reformed church. He was born in Berlin, Somerset county, in 1816. When 28 years of age, after receiving an education at Hagerstown, Md., he accepted a call to the Wellersburg church, Somerset county. After remaining there a short time he went to Illinois, but in 18 months returned to the Wellersburg church, which he served as pastor 35 years without intermission. He is survived by his widow, who is 87 years old, and one daughter, Mrs. Anna M. Heller of Connellsville.

James Long.

James Long, aged 65, a pioneer resident of McKeesport, and one of the first employes of the National Tube Company, died yesterday at his home there from typhoid pneumonia, after a week's illness. He was born in Ireland and came to this country when a young man, locating at Boston. He is survived by his widow and three sons, James J., a newspaper man; Edward A., and Charles F., all of whom are at home, and one daughter, Mrs. Thomas J. Haney, of 1127 Tube Works street. Mr. Long was a member of St. Peter's Roman Catholic church and of Branch 26, C. M. B. A. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at St. Peter's church and the interment will be in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Joshua Weaver.

Joshua Weaver, aged 66, a broker of Fourth avenue, died Tuesday night at the Homeopathic hospital as the result of a paralytic stroke which he suffered Monday afternoon. He was born in Washington county, but spent nearly all his life in this city. He lived at 206 Bay street, Wilkinsburg. He is survived by his widow, a son, George B. Weaver; a daughter, Miss Katherine G. Weaver, and two sisters, Miss Elizabeth and Miss Mary Weaver of this city.

Mrs. Mary M. Miller.

Mrs. Mary Margaret Miller of Braddock died yesterday afternoon at the East End hospital as the result of a fractured hip received six weeks ago when she fell in Braddock after slipping on a banana peeling. She was born in 1832 in Zanesville, O., and was the widow of Jacob Miller, a veteran of the Mexican war, who died 12 years ago. The family lived 20 years in Monongahela and moved to Braddock 15 years ago. Mrs. Miller is survived by one son, Cyrus F. Miller, and two half sisters, Mrs. Victoria Carnes, and Mrs. Jane Williams of Bellevernon. She was a member of the First Baptist church, Braddock.

G. D. Simen.

G. D. Simen, Sr., aged 69 years, one of Allegheny's best known residents and business men, died last night at 9:45 o'clock at his residence, Simen avenue, near the Brighton road, after a short illness. Mr. Simen came to Allegheny in his early youth and engaged in the shoe business at Ohio and Sandusky streets, continuing there until a year or more ago, when he retired from active business. He made fortunate investments in real estate and was the owner of considerable property in both Pittsburgh and Allegheny. The funeral services will be held at Christ Evangelical Lutheran church, McClure and Cass avenues, on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Clark Abraham.

Mrs. Josephene McClure Abraham, wife of Clark Abraham, of 719 Fourth street, Braddock, died late Tuesday night. She was born in Fayette county 36 years ago, and in 1895 she married C. M. Abraham. She was a member of the First Methodist Episcopal church, of Braddock. Besides her husband she leaves two children, John C., and Nema, both at home.

A New Baby.

A New Baby! What magic, what mystery, what charm these words have for us. Yet, how infinitely more they mean to the mother. A new life; short, to be sure, but full of possibilities. Some one must be patient, hopeful, watchful, proud and never discouraged. That "some one" is the mother. She has heard her baby's first cry, and whether it be her first or tenth, the feeling is the same. Her feeble arms are out-stretched; those arms that will never desert it as long as the mother shall live. And that hand which supports the head of the new-born babe, the mother's hand, supports the civilization of the world.

Is it any wonder, we ask you, mothers, that with all these responsibilities resting upon your all too weak shoulders, we urge upon you the necessity of selecting the babe's medicine with utmost care; the necessity of protecting your babe from worthless, unknown and narcotic drugs as you would protect it from the fire?

Liquozone by What It Does. The First Bottle Is Free.

No testimonials are published on Liquozone. We prefer to buy the first bottle, and let the product itself prove its power. A simple test will do more to convince you than any argument or claims. We ask you to learn, at our expense, what this wonderful product means to you.

If you are sick, use Liquozone to get well, as millions have done. Learn what it does that other remedies have not accomplished. If you are well, use it to keep well, to ward off germ attacks and as an invigorant.

What Liquozone Is.

The virtues of Liquozone are derived solely from gases. The formula is sent to each user. The process of making requires large apparatus, and from 8 to 14 days' time. It is directed by chemists of the highest class. The object is to so fix and combine the gases as to carry into the system a powerful tonic-germicide.

Contact with Liquozone kills any form of disease germ, because germs are of vegetable origin. Yet to the body Liquozone is not only harmless, but helpful in the extreme. That is its main distinction. Common germicides are poison when taken internally. That is why medicine has been so helpless in a germ disease. Liquozone is exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying; yet no disease germ can exist in it.

We purchased the American rights to Liquozone after thousands of tests had been made with it. Its power had been proved, again and again, in the most difficult germ diseases. Then we offered to supply the first bottle free in every disease that required it. And over one million dollars have been spent to announce and fulfill this offer.

The result is that 11,000,000 bottles have been used, mostly in the past two years. Today there are countless cured ones, scattered everywhere, to tell what Liquozone has done.

But so many others need it that this offer is published still. In late years, science has traced scores of diseases to germ attacks. Old remedies do not apply to them. We wish to show those sick ones—at our cost—what Liquozone can do.

Where It Applies.

These are the diseases in which Liquozone has been most employed. In these it has earned its widest reputation. In all of these troubles we supply the first bottle free. And in all—no matter how difficult—we offer each user a two months' further test without the risk of a penny.

RAILROAD GETS STREET IN JUNCTION HOLLOW

Roadbed to Be Traded for New Right of Way—Ordinances to Be Introduced Monday.

Director Bigelow announced yesterday that Boundary street, which runs along Junction hollow, through Schenley park, is to be turned over to the Baltimore & Ohio railroad for the Pittsburgh Junction tracks, which are to be relocated and that the present right of way occupied by the railroad is to be traded to the city. Three ordinances will be introduced in councils next Monday to effect the change.

One will vacate the present Boundary street for the railroad. The second will dedicate the right of way of the railroad to the city for a street, and the third ordinance will locate the new Boundary street, where the tracks now run.

The relocation of the railroad tracks is intended to reduce the steep grade which compels the use of extra engines to push freight trains through Junction hollow. The company will have to make a change in its tunnel. The present tunnel will have to be lowered or a new tunnel constructed parallel with the present one under Neville street.

Director Bigelow says the new Boundary street will extend from Fifth avenue, at Neville street, to Greenfield avenue, about 200 feet from Second avenue.

About 3,000 feet of ground of the present Boundary street have been dug up by Contractor T. A. Gillespie in laying the South Side water main. It is the intention of Director Bigelow to fill up this excavation and to lay the water main where the railroad tracks are now located. The course of the water main has already been changed in anticipation of councils speedily passing the ordinances to be introduced on Monday.

ALL ARE WELCOME TO TAKE EXAMINATIONS

Director Hamerschlag Issues Notice Regarding Steps for Entering the "Tech."

Director Hamerschlag of the Carnegie Technical schools has issued a statement regarding the entrance examinations for the day school of applied science, which take place next Monday. It has come to the notice of Director Hamerschlag that many students have changed their addresses since enrolling, and that their notices to appear for the examinations have been returned unopened.

So there may be no question of discrimination in favor of any student the director wishes to advise these students that any boy 16 years of age or over can present himself for examinations next Monday afternoon at Room 8, Carnegie Technical schools, Schenley park, at 1 p. m. whether he has been previously enrolled or not. Students are advised that the examinations will be simple, so that it may disclose the fitness and natural aptitude of any applicant rather than whether he has been recently in school or whether he has fully completed all the subjects called for.

At a meeting of the committee of the Carnegie Technical schools yesterday afternoon, Allan H. Willett of Brown university, Providence, was appointed to the assistant professorship in industrial economics for the school of applied science. Prof. Willett was born in Massachusetts, graduated from Brown university in 1896, as Phi Betta Kappa, received the degree, Ph. D., from Columbia university; has had extensive teaching experience—teaching the classics, Greek and Latin, at Urbana, Peckshill Military academy one year, Brooklyn Latin schools two years, and has been with the Brown university for the last five years.

KILGALLON IS HELD FOR TRIAL AT COURT

Alderman Refuses to Hear His Testimony, Despite Attorney's Heroic Efforts.

Policeman James Kilgallon, who was dismissed from the force for neglect of duty, was yesterday held for court by Alderman Toole on a charge of assault and battery, made by Mrs. M. B. Dick of 234 Franklstown avenue, who alleges that officer insulted her by forcibly kissing her and throwing her down on the Ellsworth bridge on August 24. The ex-policeman furnished $300 bail for court. Before the hearing, Attorney Brennen, who defended Kilgallon, wanted Mrs. Dick to withdraw the charge against Kilgallon, but she refused. Mrs. Dick identified Kilgallon as the man who assaulted and abused her, in spite of the efforts made by Kilgallon's attorney to break down her testimony. Her testimony was the same as that given by her before the police trial board, when Kilgallon was dismissed from the service.

Attorney Brennen cross-examined Mrs. Dick in a most rigid manner. He offered to place Kilgallon on the stand to show he was not in the neighborhood on that morning and that it was impossible for him to be guilty of the charges made against him by Mrs. Dick, but the alderman could not see the necessity.

"Mrs. Dick tells a straightforward story," said Alderman Toole. "You cross-examined her closely and as she is positive in her identification of Kilgallon, I feel it is my duty to hold the defendant for court. There is no use of me listening to your witnesses."

M'AFEE HAS PREPARED THE OFFICIAL BALLOT

Is Much Smaller in Size Than Usual, Owing to Limited Number of Candidates.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, Oct. 4.—Secretary of the Commonwealth McAfee has completed the preparation of the official form of the ballot for the November election. It will be much smaller this year than usual, owing to the limited number of state candidates to be voted for.

There are four nominees each for state treasurer and justice of the supreme court, and 11 candidates for the four judges of the superior court to be elected. The political parties represented on the ticket are Republican, Democratic, Citizens, Prohibition, Socialist, Socialist-Labor, Lincoln and Independence.

The nomination papers of the Lincoln party for the state ticket and the regular Republican and Democratic placed nominees in Philadelphia, which were presented yesterday, have been found to be in proper form and to contain the requisite number of signatures, and have been marked "Filed" by the department.

The name of J. Lee Plummer will appear on the ballot as the candidate of the Republican and the Citizens parties for state treasurer. William H. Berry, his competitor, has been nominated by the Democratic, Prohibition, Independence and Lincoln parties. Robert B. Ringler is the Socialist, and E. J. Drugmand the Socialist-Labor candidate for treasurer.

The nominees for justice of the supreme court are: Judge John Stewart, the governor's appointee, who has been named by Republican, Democratic, Citizens, Independence and Lincoln parties; John D. Gill, Prohibition; Edward Kuppinger, Socialist and E. R. Merkley, Socialist-Labor.

The Democratic and Prohibition parties have each nominated one candidate for judge of the superior court. The Republicans, Socialist and Socialist-Labor parties have each named three candidates for the four superior court judges to be elected. No voter is entitled to vote for more than three.

ECKELS IN PROPHETIC ROLE.

Former Controller of Currency Foresees National Disaster in Federal Control of Railroads.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Oct. 4.—James H. Eckels, president of the Commercial National bank of Chicago, and former controller of the currency, was the principal speaker today at the annual convention of the Kentucky Bankers' association. He said in part:

"It has become a fashion to denounce railroads and ask that the law be invoked to regulate the business of a dozen or a thousand men. No one would dare to invoke legislation to control the business of a private individual. Any attempt to legislate on such questions as are purely of a business nature, and to take from the owner the virtual management of his business will bring national disaster."

The American public used over three million last year. Give immediate relief—do not affect the heart. At all Druggists.

GREAT REVIVAL IN CONFERENCE

Congregation Leaves Seats and Marches, Sings, Prays and Gathers Around Altar.

DR. EATON ATTACKS LODGES

SPECIAL TELEGRAM FROM JEROME NORDMAN, Staff Correspondent.

BEAVER, PA., Oct. 4.—Led up to a high pitch of religious enthusiasm by two fervent speeches on "Aggressive Evangelism," 250 men and women at the Pittsburgh conference of the Methodist Episcopal church here this afternoon arose, marched triumphantly around the church to their own chorus of "At the Cross," and knelt down around the altar rail four rows deep, chanting hymns and giving expressions to their faith and belief. Prayer after prayer was offered in loud voice, while the congregation was liberal in the responses.

The Rev. Dr. E. L. Eaton of the North Avenue church, Allegheny, made an address in which he defined sin. During this he took occasion to say: "There are 375 lodges and societies in the city of Pittsburgh, ranging from some that are very decent down to the Elks. They celebrated the Lord's supper with pretzels and beer last Sabbath."

Counsel from an Old Pastor.

Referring to the question of revivals, Dr. Eaton said people have changed their ideas and that today it would be impossible to fill a church during a revival even if automobiles were sent after the people. Here the Rev. Dr. Lathaw McGuire, now on the superannuated list, and formerly pastor of the McCandless Avenue church, interrupted by crying out: "Try it and see! If you ministers would do as we did, you could!"

"I wish that 200 revival meetings would be broken up by rowdies in Pittsburgh this winter," was Dr. Eaton's reply. His argument which followed inferred that sympathy thus created would work to the advantage of the church.

The audience at this point was well worked up and when Dr. McGuire followed with a fervent and enthusiastic address, pleading for the old-time method of preaching and revivals, the congregation became restless. Finally, as a climax, he cried loudly for divine aid as he threw his arms heavenward and pleaded for an old-fashioned revival. It was here the congregation responded and left their seats. Then an altar service was held which was marked by its great sincerity and at its conclusion Dr. McGuire asked everyone to pray steadily and earnestly for 24 hours, and come back at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon for another service.

The Permanent Annuity Fund.

At tonight's session the anniversary of the Permanent Annuity association was celebrated, and addresses were delivered by the Rev. Dr. J. Benson Hamilton of Brooklyn and the Rev. Dr. C. W. Smith of Pittsburgh. An appeal was made to raise $10,000 on the plan that each clergyman present donate his note for $100 and pay 5 per cent on his donation until paid. A large sum was realized and all the clergy whose not present additional subscriptions will be received in the morning when the total subscription will be announced. This association is supported by pastors of the conference for the purpose of establishing a relief fund when they are unable to preach. It has now nearly $70,000 in the treasury, while $150,000 has already been bequeathed in wills of living members of the church. The Rev. Dr. J. F. Steffy, who is agent for the association, has announced that he will resign at this session of conference. Previous to the night session a concert was given by students of Beaver college.

At the morning session today a communion service was held with Bishop Joel Cranston presiding and the presiding elders assisting. The Rev. N. L. Brown was made secretary and given the following assistants: The Revs. M. H. Lightner, William Magley, C. L. Smith, G. H. Flinn and R. B. Cuthbert. The Rev. H. P. Johnson was appointed statistical secretary with the following assistants: The Revs. H. S. Piper, F. D. Eisenwern, W. L. Wilkenson, F. L. Teets and J. F. Jose. The Rev. James Horner was made treasurer with the following assistants: The Revs. W. E. E. Barcus, N. H. Sannes, J. S. Ferris, P. C. Brooks, N. B. Fierstone and W. J. Hunter.

Memorial Service Held.

The Rev. Dr. R. B. Mansell of Beaver Falls conducted a memorial service for the Revs. H. C. Beacom, W. T. Braden, F. K. Pershing and Henry Long, who died during the year.

Addresses were made by the Rev. Drs. W. V. Kelley of the Methodist Review, J. M. Buckley of the New York Christian Advocate, and George P. Means of the Methodist Book Concern. The latter reported that the Pittsburgh conference's share of the profits of that concern for the last year was $1,540.

The Rev. L. R. Jones was appointed on the board of stewards to take the place of the Rev. Dr. Beacom, deceased. At the opening of the afternoon session the Rev. Dr. C. L. E. Cartwright delivered an eloquent address on missionary work.

PREPARING FOR BIG INSPECTIONS

Pennsylvania's Employes Putting Road in Fine Shape. Adopt Parcel Check.

LAKE SHORE TRAFFIC CHANGE

Two hundred thousand operating, maintenance, mechanical and traffic employes of the Pennsylvania system's 12,000 miles of road are endeavoring to bring the road into the best possible shape just now. This is being done because of the annual inspections that are to be made next week by the general managers of the lines east and west of Pittsburgh, and because of the annual inspection of the system by President A. J. Cassatt and the directors and higher executive officers before the end of this month. It is certain that the officers and directors will find more traffic moving with better dispatch than ever before in the history of the road. The president's inspection, it was said, will follow closely upon the inspections by the general managers, and will probably be made during the week of October 15.

A forerunner to the inspection by President Cassatt of the entire Pennsylvania system came yesterday morning with the start of President James McCrea and a party of officers over the Vandalia railroad system. Upon their arrival from the Prevost funeral at Philadelphia yesterday morning, President McCrea, First Vice President Joseph Wood and Second Vice President J. J. Turner of the Vandalia railroad, and General Manager Peck and Freight Traffic Manager D. T. McCabe of the Pennsylvania lines, left Pittsburgh in a special train for the trip over the Vandalia's lines. It could not be learned whether this will be the main annual inspection of that road, but as Mr. McCrea is at the head of the Vandalia lines, it is understood that Mr. Cassatt and the Pennsylvania system officers and directors will not make a trip over the Vandalia lines. This is Mr. McCrea's first trip over the Vandalia since his return from Europe. The inspection will occupy about three days.

P. R. R. Adopts New Parcel Check.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has just adopted for its whole system east of Pittsburgh and Erie a new form of parcel room check for use at the larger stations along the lines. The check is the invention of George W. Conrad and W. J. Pittall, who are also the inventors and patentees of the new baggage check which the Pennsylvania placed in use September 15. The parcel room check was adopted October 1. The need for a quick and accurate method of checking parcels at the larger stations has been felt for some time, while at the smaller cities where the parcel room checking is often handicapped by lack of space or other facilities, there has also been need for improvement. This will be met in the adoption of the new check. The check will also be of interest to the large hotel proprietors and to stores, transfer companies and any other concerns which must use a check for their business dealing in certain forms. "Crosses" in baggage or parcels that happen in the use of brass checks often go so far as three or four errors before the matter is corrected. While it is probable that "crosses" will occur in the use of the new parcel room check, these "crosses" will be fewer because of the simplicity of the check.

Use of the hyphenated numbers is made on the original and duplicate portions of this check in the same manner as these numbers are used on the baggage check. On the stub of the check, which is attached to the parcel, are stamped the time of delivery and receipt of the package, a space for the punch mark of the employe making the delivery and spaces for the number of days of storage and the charge for this storage. On the portion of the check handed to the owner of the parcel are spaces indicating the nature of the package checked, with provision for either punching these spaces or noting the number of the rack or shelf on which the parcel was placed. Provision is thus made for the following: Golf bag, coat, suit case, telescope, valise, sample case, rods, large package, small package, guns and umbrella. On the face of this portion are shown the charges for the service—5 cents for the first 48 hours and 10 cents for each additional 24 hours, with a maximum charge of $1 for a month. On the back of this portion of the check are printed certain conditions—that if the parcel is uncalled for after 60 days it will be subject to sale for accrued charges, etc.

When it is known that the revenue from the parcel room at the Union station in this city alone for a month averages close to $6,000, it will be seen that there is use for a large number of these checks every day. The Union station parcel room is considered the best arranged and operated on the Pennsylvania system.

Nicholson Succeeds Paul Morton.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—George T. Nicholson, passenger traffic manager of the Santa Fe, has been appointed third vice president and will have charge of the freight and passenger traffic of the road. This is the position formerly held by Paul Morton. Mr. Nicholson is about 48 years old. He began with the Santa Fe about 20 years ago as rate clerk in the general passenger offices at Topeka. After filling the position of chief clerk he became assistant general passenger agent, then general passenger agent and, after a year with the Frisco system, returned to the Santa Fe as passenger traffic manager. Mr. Nicholson is well known in Pittsburgh.

Rock Island Accounting Changes.

Circulars announcing important changes in the accounting department of the Rock Island system and the Arkansas Southern railroad were received in Pittsburgh yesterday. The changes are made because of the office of assistant, general auditor being created. W. H. Burns, auditor of freight traffic, has been promoted to the new office as assistant to General Auditor Frank Nay. C. G. Weaver, assistant auditor of freight traffic, has been promoted to auditor of freight traffic, and L. K. Luff has been appointed to succeed him in the former office.

A. R. Porterfield, auditor of the Arkansas Southern railroad, having resigned, the office was abolished, and the office of general auditor was created and Frank Nay was appointed. Mr. Nay announced the following appointments, effective October 1: W. H. Burns, assistant general auditor, H. M. Sloan, auditor of disbursements; C. G. Weaver, auditor of freight traffic; D. Laughlin, auditor of passenger traffic, and C. S. Tewksbury, freight claim agent.

Local Lake Shore Traffic Changes.

The change of title of the chief representative of the traffic department of the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railway in this city, D. E. Hurd, from commercial agent to general agent, became effective October 1, and along with this change came another important office. J. K. Scandrett, who had been identified with the office of Mr. Hurd for a couple of years as chief clerk, resigned to accept a position with the Flaccus Glass Company. As his successor Mr. Hurd appointed Charles A. Rose. Mr. Rose has had such experience in the traffic department of railroading as to fit him admirably for the position as chief clerk. He was until recently traffic manager of the Babcock lumber interests, and a few weeks ago became identified with the Santa Fe as contracting agent.

FEAR DR. MOORE'S WORDS WILL HAVE BAD EFFECT

Ministers and Members of Presbyterian Church Agitated by Speech Made at Presbytery Meeting.

Members of the Presbyterian church are agitated over the sentiments expressed at the meeting of the Pittsburgh presbytery of the Presbyterian church, held in the First church's chapel in Sixth avenue, by the Rev. Dr. Dunlop Moore on Tuesday, when the report of the committee on temperance was up for discussion. Because of Dr. Moore's scholarly attainments and the high esteem in which he is held by ministers and members of the Presbyterian church, it is feared men of less strength of character than Dr. Moore might go to excess in their indulgence in intoxicating liquors.

W. C. Lilley, chairman of the permanent committee on temperance of the Presbyterian church, said he regrets Dr. Moore's statements because they can have no other than dangerous effect on the young men of this community. Mr. Lilley said he believes many young men will not be able to make the distinction between the use of liquor as a medicine and as a beverage.

Dr. Moore said he wished to be his own free agent and would not be bound by a pledge, and that he would take a drink of wine when he thought it was necessary. Dr. Moore stated at the meeting he is an advocate of temperance, but is opposed to forcing any man to take the pledge when it is against his convictions.

FORMER DIXMONT INMATE CHARGES BASE CRUELTY

George C. Brown's Statements Are Branded as False by Superintendent Hutchinson.

George C. Brown, of New Castle, recently released from the Western Pennsylvania Institute for Insane, declares that cruelty is practiced by the attendants at Dixmont, and that torture is inflicted upon inmates there. Brown declares he is going to demand an investigation of the management and says he has already filed charges with the state board of charities.

Dr. C. B. King, local representative of the state board, admits that he has received a letter from the board and that he was instructed to investigate the charges. Dr. King says he remembers Brown at Dixmont and believes he was a cocaine fiend. He discounts the allegations of Brown but will say little.

When Dr. Henry A. Hutchinson was asked concerning the matter he said:

"I really should make no answer, for the charges are absurd and not worthy of reply. I will give them no more attention than I do others of a similar nature made by persons just as unreliable as Brown. Brown can go as far as he likes with his charges. An investigation here would only prove the untruth of what he and others have said about alleged cruel treatment."

In his statement Brown names several patients whom he says were abused for trivial offenses. The names of the attendants guilty of the ill-treatment Brown says he does not know.

Dr. Hutchinson says Brown was violently insane when admitted to Dixmont and intimates that anything he says hereafter should not be credited.

WALLACE IS ANGRY AND TALKS OF LIGHTED TORCHES

"A lighted torch should be set to the court house," said Superintendent of Public Wallace, yesterday.

Wallace is angry because the grand jury for the second time ignored the bills against George Langren and Matthew Cavanaugh, charged with arson of $25 from a Third avenue storekeeper. Wallace says he will make another information against Langren and bring it before the next grand jury. The officers of the district attorney's office say the police have not sufficient evidence upon which Langren or he would have been indicted.

KAUFMANN'S "THE BIG STORE"

HOUSEKEEPERS FAIR

GREAT goings-on downstairs at our store for just one week—beginning today. The Main Aisle of the basement salesroom will vie with the main aisle at the Exposition in its manifold attractions. Every woman who does housework or directs household affairs and wants to find more enjoyment in cookery, less drudgery in housecleaning and more comfort in the laundry, should spend an hour or so among the demonstrations some day this week, and test the products of new devices. Electricity furnishes the heat. A few details to the right and the left and below as to the more interesting features:

HOW TO MAKE COOKERY EASIER

Ohio Steam Cooker—The cooker with doors that prepares the entire meal—fish, roasts, vegetables and puddings—all at once. Only one burner required. Food cannot burn or spoil by waiting. Used on any stove. Any dish can be taken out or examined without interfering with any other. Makes preparing a meal a scientific pleasure.

Universal Bread Baker—Mixes and kneads bread thoroughly in three minutes. The hands do not touch the dough. Improves the quality of the bread.

Universal Cake Maker—Mixes the batter for all kinds of cakes in three to five minutes, very rapidly, easily and with better results than can be obtained by the old hand method.

Puritan Tea Strainer—A simple device that goes inside the spout and prevents the leaves from passing into the cup. Invisible when in effective use, silver plate will not tarnish and (best of all) sells for only 10c.

HOW TO MAKE HOME HANDSOMER

Hardwood Floor Polisher—Jordan's Oil Spreader and Polisher. Works rapidly, economically and efficiently. Imparts the most perfect finish.

Wax Oil Polish—A fluid prepration that cleans instantly and polishes beautifully all hard wood surfaces. Restores luster, removes stains and destroys disease germs.

Enamelet—A perfect wood finish for floors, furniture, woodwork, linoleum, oilcloth and bath tubs. Imparts durable and brilliant finish and resists moisture.

Perolin—The ideal dustless sweeping material that settles and absorbs the dust, brightens and preserves the carpets, kills all germs, drives moths from the house and purifies the air.

Lace Curtain Stretcher—The "No-Piece Stretcher" adjusts itself to any size of curtain and the pins adjust themselves to any size scallops. Makes scallops uniform and causes curtains to hang straight.

HOW TO MAKE HOUSEWORK LIGHTER

Asbestos Sad Irons—An iron for every purpose, from pressing the heaviest cloths to smoothing the dainties fabrics. Asbestos lined hood protects the hands from heat and confines the heat in the "heat reservoir."

Bissell's Carpet Sweepers—"Cyco" bearing sweepers that will last longer than fifty brooms and pay for themselves in the saving of carpets—to say nothing of time, labor and health.

Universal Coffee Percolator—Perfect coffee, quickly made, without boiling, retaining all its aroma and free from tannic acid. The only percolator that pumps.

The New Connecticut Food Chopper—No drip, no slop, no floor to mop. A combined meat and food chopper and nut butter mill. Simple, durable and strong.

Ideal Bread Toaster—The Wilson Toaster produces that perfect stage of brownness and crispness that make toast a breakfast delicacy. Can be used equally well on gas and gasoline stoves.

GAMES TODAY.

Philadelphia at New York.
Boston at Brooklyn.

At Exposition park yesterday another great game was played, the Pittsburghs losing to the Bostons in 13 innings, by a score of 1 to 0. It was the longest game played by the Pirates this season, and came within one inning of equalling the local record. Not a game was ever played by the Pittsburgh team at home longer than 14 innings. Yesterday's game was the fourth of the season in which the Pirates took part that lasted over nine innings, and in which only one run was scored. The first occurred on July 31 at Exposition park, when Brooklyn won in 10 innings by a score of 1 to 0. On August 15 the Philadelphias were beaten at Exposition park by a score of 1 to 0 in 12 innings, and on September 3 the Chicagos beat the Pittsburghs at Chicago in 11 innings by a score of 1 to 0.

In yesterday's game only two Pittsburgh players got as far as third base. Flanagan was there the fraction of a second in the ninth inning. He was on second base when he attempted to steal. He stole the base all right, but overslid the bag and was put out before he could get back. In the eleventh inning Flanagan also reached third, but was left there. He reached first, after two were out, because Tenney dropped a throw by Wolverton. Wagner hit to right for a single, sending Flanagan to third. Wagner stole second and Brain was given his base on balls, filling the sacks. Clymer was sent to bat for Hilebrand, and rolled the ball to Raymer, who threw him out at first. This was the only chance the Pirates had to score.

No, it was not the only chance. In this inning Heine Peitz, with one man out, bifled the ball into left field for three bases. He reached the third bag amid the cheers of the people. Delehanty got hold of the ball and flung it into the diamond. Fraser got it and fired it to Tenney at first, who missed his hand. Umpire Johnstone turned to Heine and said distinctly:: "You're out." Heine had rounded first base without touching the bag. He not only missed making his first three-bagger of the season, but also spoilt a chance for the Pirates to win. Heine was in bad humor for the balance of the game and several times was on the point of being sent out of the game by the umpire.

Of course the pitching on both sides was excellent. Case and Fraser were dead in earnest and did their very best. That is the reason why the game lasted 13 innings. In all this time the Beaneaters reached third base only five times. Cannell was lucky enough to get there three times, but was unable to score. He reached third in the second inning, in the ninth and in the twelfth. Tenney reached third in the eleventh, and in the thirteenth not only got to third, but scored the only run of the game. It was this way:

Tenney, the first batter up in the thirteenth inning, hit to right for a single. Then the hit-and-run game was played. Tenney legged it to second and kept on running till he crossed the plate on a two-bagger by Dolan. Dolan's hit certainly was a beauty. It fell between Flanagan and Gandy. Flanagan fielded it in a hurry, but Tenney crossed the plate safely. The Pirates could do nothing in their half of the thirteenth. Attendance 1,035. Score:

AMONG THE BOXERS.

Jimmy Dunn, the little New Castle fighter, will arrive here today and train with Larry Temple and Young Ziringer this afternoon at the Business Men's club, out Fifth avenue. Dunn has had some good offers of late. They want him to fight Kid Herman at Grand Rapids, Mich.

The matchmaker of the Bridgeport (O.) club was in town yesterday and made arrangements to put Jimmy Dunn and Larry Temple on at its next two shows.

Kid Tyler, after a long rest, has started to train and is willing to meet anyone at his weight. His manager is willing to post a forfeit for a match with Jimmy Dunn of New Castle or any other good man.

PENN MEN WIN.

Dewhurst and Register Beat Behr and Spaulding, Yale, at Tennis.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.—The most interesting contest in the inter-collegiate tennis tournament was the match in doubles between Dewhurst and Register, University of Pennsylvania, and Behr and Spaulding of Yale. Dewhurst and Register won after repeated rallies and play remarkable for its closeness. Leroy of Columbia, the present inter-collegiate champion in singles, did not enter this year, and Dewhurst will play Behr here tomorrow for the title. In the finals for doubles Dewhurst and Register will play Wells and Field of Yale for the championship. Summary:

Semi-finals, singles—Behr (Yale) defeated Whiteman (Harvard), 6-3, 6-3; Dewhurst (Pennsylvania) defeated Sulloway (Harvard), 6-0, 6-3.

Doubles—Dewhurst and Register (Pennsylvania) defeated Behr and Spaulding (Yale), 6-4, 6-3; Wells and Field (Yale) defeated Rendall and Thompson (Princeton), 6-4, 6-1.

U. OF P. WILL CALL OFF GAME WITH W. U. P.

Joe Thompson, captain of the W. U. P. eleven, and Dr. William Farrar, returned yesterday from Philadelphia, where they went to confer with the U. of P. athletic committee relative to the Quakers calling off the game with W. U. P. U. of P. has not announced its decision yet, but according to Thompson the game will not be played. The W. U. P. game would come between the Harvard and Columbia games for U. of P., and for this reason alone it does not wish to engage in a hard game.

WEEDE BREAKS LEG; PENN'S BAD DAY

Quaker's End Put Out of Game and Gettysburg Scores Touchdown, First in Two Years.

RESULTS OF BIG CONTESTS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.—The University of Pennsylvania football team experienced a double dose of misfortune today when it defeated Gettysburg in the second game of the season, by the score of 16 to 6. Not only was this the first touchdown that has been made against Penn in two years, but worse yet, the victory cost Penn her best end. With less than a minute to play Weede, picked by many as an all-American end last year, sustained a double fracture of his left leg. This was Weede's last year in football, and the injury will take him out of the game for good.

The make Weede's loss all the more felt he played his star game of the day for the Red and Blue, making one touchdown and kicking a goal from field. His touchdown was an exhibition of fine headwork. When Gettysburg's punt was blocked Weede, being unable to pick up the ball on the run, gave it a kick down the field, and then outsprinting the others, fell on it over the line, having gained nearly 60 yards for his play. Penn's final score was made when Quarterback Johnston made a fine catch on the 25-yard line. Weede sent the ball squarely between the goal posts from placement. The line-up:

Pennsylvania—16.		Gettysburg—6.
Weede (Kinnard)	L.E.	McClure
Draper (Rooke)	L.T.	Snyder
Robinson	L.G.	Hill
Torrey (Bankart)	C.	Benner
Zeigler (Hobson)	R.G.	Deltrick
Lanson	R.T.	Schwartz
Kinnard (Dwyer)	R.E.	Storrick
Luby (Johnston)	Q.B.	Limmert (Strohmeyer)
Greene (Longwell)	L.H.	Shearer
Bennis	R.H.	Seiber
Folwell (Kinnard-Gimbel)	F.B.	Brumbaugh

Touchdowns—Scarlett, Weede, Seiber. Goals from touchdown—Torrey 2, Seiber. Goal from placement—Weede. Referee—J. C. McCracken. Umpire—William Morris. Linesman—McCarty. Time of halves—20 and 15 minutes.

FLINN MAKES THE FIRST TOUCHDOWN; YALE WINS

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Yale this afternoon played her first football game of the season and defeated Wesleyan, 27 to 0. The visitors put up a good fight in the first half, during which the Eils only scored one touchdown. But in the second half the Middltown boys began to get winded and Capt. Shevlin put in almost an entire fresh eleven and Yale made touchdowns just as she pleased. The feature of this half was 50-yard runs by the Blue backs, Flinn and Quill, the latter dropped the ball when, close to Wesleyan's goal, but recovered it through Wesleyan's inability to gain ground. Finally Rex Flinn was shoved over for a touchdown. The second half opened with a touchdown by Stevenson after a 40-yard run. Then Bigelow, the big tackle, caught Wesleyan's kickoff and ran it back 50 yards, and Veeder by a short plunge scored. Stevenson next made a 45-yard run that netted a touchdown. Wesleyan made a fair catch and punted out to Yale's 40-yard line, and "Ted" Jones, the freshman quarterback, caught and scored a 55-yard run from which Quill got a touchdown. Wesleyan was unable to gain any ground against the Yale line, and proved a much easier proposition than Yale had expected. "Bosey" Reiter, the old Princeton halfback, who is coaching Wesleyan, said the Eils were too big for his team. Reiter's brother played for Wesleyan just about 30 seconds and was laid up. Line-up:

Yale—27.		Wesleyan—0.
Congdon (Beebe)	L.E.	Cunningham
Forbes (Turner)	L.T.	North

Touchdowns—Flinn, Stevenson 2; Veeder, Quill. Goals—Hoyt, Veeder. Umpire—Dr. S. H. Hammond, of Yale. Referee—Mr. Thompson, of Georgetown. Linesmen—Netherway, of Wesleyan and Levine of Yale. Timekeeper—T. B. Hull of New Haven. Time of halves—First half, 17 minutes; second half, 12 minutes.

CORNELL USES SUBS, BUT DEFEATS HOBART, 28 TO 0

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—A team of substitutes for Cornell had little trouble in defeating Hobart this afternoon 28 to 0. In the first half steady ground gaining by Walders, Gibson and Wolheim netted the Ithacans three touchdowns, credited to Wolheim. Earle and Martinez made frequent long runs in the second half and scorad twice more. Earle made a reputation for himself as a burdler. Rice played his first game at quarterback although this was counted to expectation, and gave an excellent performance. Walders, who may well be considered a "varsity man, made a phenomenal run of 71 yards and did some fine punting. The lineup:

Cornell—28.		Hobart—0.
Goodspeed	L.E.	Visscher (Schaefer)

WILKINSBURG GIVES PITTSBURGH HARD GAME

The Wilkinsburg High school eleven gave Pittsburgh High school a stiff argument yesterday at Friendship park, in the opening game for both teams. Pittsburgh won, 18 to 2, getting two touchdowns in the second half, one being the result of a fumble by Wilkinsburg, which Capt. Worrell picked up on Pittsburgh's 40-yard line and ran the length of the field. Wilkinsburg held for downs early in the game, getting the ball on Pittsburgh's 35-yard line. Thounhurst and Messner took turns in advancing the leather to the six yard line, where the Wilkinsburg coach began to yell instructions. For this violation of the rules Wilkinsburg was penalized five yards.

Wilkinsburg failed to make up the lost ground and Pittsburgh secured the ball. Thounhurst broke through the line and blocked Orr's punt, and then threw Orr behind the line for a safety. Pittsburgh rushed the ball along from mid-field in the second half and Verner made the third touchdown on a 20-yard run around end. Thounhurst, in the first half, made a 50-yard punt. The lineup:

BOWDOIN IS TOO LIGHT FOR THE HARVARD TEAM

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Harvard defeated Bowdoin 16 to 0 today in a game marred by fumbling, offside play and holdings. Bowdoin's line averaged only 160 pounds and was unable to withstand the attacks of the Crimson backs, who would have scored more had it not been for constant punting and bad handling of the ball. The Crimson's defense was excellent, only once during the game did Bowdoin make a gain, and that was only for one yard. Harvard's first score was by Hanley after short rushes from the middle of the field. In the next few minutes the ball changed hands three times and the half ended with no more scoring. In the second half Harvard scored as the direct result of a bad pass by the Bowdoin quarterback over the fullback's head. The third and last touchdown was made by Newhall on a quarterback run. The line:

Harvard—16.		Bowdoin—0.
O'Brien (Grant-Bird)	L.E.	J. Drummond
Hrill (Sparr)	L.T.	Schofield
Rice (Gardner)	L.G.	Powers

BRAND AND ROWE TIE IN TOURNEY

They Will Play Off This Afternoon for the Title of Open Golf Champion.

JACK DINGWALL WAS THIRD

In the tournament at the Oakmont Country club yesterday to decide the title of open golf champion of Western Pennsylvania, Fred Brand, professional at the Allegheny Country club, tied for the honor with Charles H. Rowe, professional at the Beaver Valley Country club, each returning 161 for the 36 holes of play. The tie will be played off this afternoon at 2 o'clock and will bring out a big gallery to see these experts battle for the honor.

Jack Dingwall, professional at the Edgeworth club, finished a close third with 162. This year five professionals finished ahead of the amateurs, the other two being Alexander Gourlay, at the Edgewood Golf club, and Peter Robertson, at the Oakmont Country club. For a number of years amateurs have won the title, notably E. M. Byers and W. C. Fownes, Jr., the latter capturing it last year as well as the amateur championship.

The winner of the play-off of the tie today will receive $50 and the loser $30. Jack Dingwall, who finished third, will receive $20.

Fred Brand is a product of the Carnoustie Golf club, located near the famous St. Andrews, in Scotland. He came to the Allegheny Country club last spring. Charles H. Rowe comes from the Westward-Ho club in North Devonshire, England. He has been in this country for several years. Jack Dingwall also comes from Westward-Ho and before going to the Edgeworth club was professional at the Allegheny Country club, being succeeded by Brand.

Favorite Was Defeated.

The defeat of Peter Robertson, professional at the Oakmont club, was in the nature of a surprise, for he was picked as the probable winner of the national open championship at Myopia this fall. He hails from the Carnoustie club and came over this spring with Brand. Robertson is a top-notcher. No one has seen him go around worse than 78 over the Hulton links till yesterday, when 81 and 84 was the best he could do. After getting away well at the first hole he dubbed his second and sliced his third, and then taking three to get down. This apparently disconcerted him and he never got on his game, missing the easiest sort of puts.

Rowe's brilliant 37, bogie 42, in the first round gave him a splendid start, being the best figures of the day for the first nine holes. Robertson's 38 in the second round, bogie 40, was the best of the day for the second nine holes. Brand's bad twelfth hole, when he topped his second, lost him the victory, for he took seven to get down.

Rowe played a steady, straightaway game, always being in the center of the course and getting values. Dingwall was brilliant in spots, his two at the thirteenth hole being notable. Full eleven threes on the greens were too costly to land him a winner.

Of the amateurs W. C. Fownes, Jr., and George A. Ormiston, as was to be expected, made the best showing. Mr. Fownes was not at his best on the greens. He played with William Frew, who returned in the second round a splendid 81, tieing the best scores of the afternoon round made by Dingwall and Gourlay. The last round of R. F. Nevin, Jr., 40, was only equaled by Mr. Ormiston and Mr. Frew.

The bogie for the course is:

Amateur Contest Today.

The competition to decide the amateur championship of Western Pennsylvania will be given this morning. L. C. Liddell of the Pittsburgh Field club is an added starter to the list already published. The qualifying round of 36 holes will be played today, the first pair teeing off at 9:30 a. m. Eight contestants will qualify to continue at match play for the championship. In addition there will be two sixteens, making 40 contestants to engage in match play.

The prizes are bronze medal for low score, gold medal for winner, silver medal for runner-up, a second cup for the winner in the first sixteen and a runner-up prize, same prizes for the second sixteen and three handicap cups. The handicap will come on Saturday.

The tournament, it is expected, will bring out a tremendous gallery and for the rest of the week. Many came out yesterday in automobiles. The day was a glorious one and the greens literally superb. They were very keen except at the sixth hole. The greens have retained to a remarkable extent the freshness of early summer.

Sweet Marie Goes in 2:04 1-4.

READVILLE, MASS., Oct. 4.—With the exception of a little breeze that blew down the stretch at the last quarter, conditions at the Readville track today were perfect for record time, and although Sweet Marie trotted a mile in 2:04¼, Audubon Boy could do no better than 2:03¾ in his endeavor to beat his previous pacing record of 1:58¾. Sweet Marie's performance today was the fastest mile trotted in public this season. Major Delmar made a mark of 2:04 this summer, but as no admission fee was charged the record could not stand as for a public trial.

Field Day for Shaners.

The Shaners will have a field day on Denny grounds Saturday, October 7. Outside of a ball game with some well-known local amateur team, there will be numerous other sports. The business men of the West End have given several valuable prizes, and weather permitting, one of the largest crowds of the season is expected. A brass band has been hired and the champions of the County league will be given a glorious send off. The sports will commence promptly at 2 o'clock. The ball game will be called at 3:15.

Scottdale Loses Through Errors.

SCOTTDALE, PA., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Braddock defeated the home team this afternoon 4 to 2. The errors of the home team were costly, letting in three of Braddock's runs. Score:

										R.	H.	E.
Scottdale	0	1	0	1	0	0	0	0	0—	2	4	3
Braddock	1	0	0	1	0	2	0	0	0—	4	8	2

W. & J. Scrubs Outplay 'Varsity.

WASHINGTON, PA., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Coach Piekarski of Washington and Jefferson placed the 'varsity backs on the scrub today and told the latter to take the ball. The second eleven carried the ball 105 yards for a touchdown against the heavy 'varsity team. The first eleven fumbled considerably and was given the hardest coaching of the season. The W. and J. team work is improving.

Abe Attell Is Outclassed.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.—Abe Attel of California and Young Erne of this city sparred six rounds tonight at the National Athletic club. Attell was outclassed by Erne. The latter's blows were more frequent and telling and he was considerably faster than his opponent.

SPORTS

BASEBALL CHATTER.

The Bostons yesterday appeared in Pittsburgh for the last time this season.

The Pittsburghs will play at Charleroi today. The whole team will take the trip.

Charley Dexter was released from jail at Des Moines yesterday. Harry Bateman refusing to prosecute.

Arrangements were completed yesterday for a post-season series of seven games between the St. Louis American and National league teams. The first game will be played Monday, October 9.

SMITH OFFERS HIMSELF AS MATRIMONIAL PRIZE

Will Marry Winner of Contest He Inaugurates, Provided She Puts Up $5 as Entrance Fee. Losers to Get Stock in Good Thing.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—A brand new scheme to secure a wife and a fortune at the same time has been solved by a man by the name of Smith, giving an address in a Broad street building, where, however, diligent search has failed to locate him. The scheme is outlined in a circular, which the postoffice officials understand has been sent to newspapers all over the land. This is the proposition:

It is not good for man to live alone, but conditions today are such that he sometimes cannot help it. Up to last year I have taken care of invalid parents at considerable expense, so that now as both have passed away I believe I am entitled to the happiness of married life. One should, of course, marry in one's own set or class, and as my connections and family are very prominent, my wife should be of the upper class. To marry, however, in this class requires money. I want to marry and would make an ideal husband, so, as I haven't enough money, I have decided to offer myself as a prize in a guessing contest, as follows:

I have placed a certain number in escrow with responsible parties, and for 30 days any woman who is educated and refined, in good health and physical condition, who has a good disposition or self-control, may, for $5 a chance, register a guess as to the number chosen. At the end of 30 days the number will be published and I will marry the winner. In case of failure, or more than one guessing the correct number, I am to have the privilege of choosing from among the contestants. The successful one will secure a good husband, and those who fail will be given stock in a company formed to exploit a valuable proposition. Each subscriber will thus receive value for her money, while one will be happily married.

Subscribers should send description with name, nom de plume, in order to receive acknowledgement and receipt. The following is my description:

American, age 40, 5 feet 7, 155 pounds, hair and eyes brown; educated, cultured; health and physical condition perfect; strong, athletic; character untarnished; disposition even, affectionate; habits good, temperate; will drop any that are objectionable; broker; family very prominent; have brains, ability, ambitious prospects. All letters considered sacred; returned on request. Who wants me?

As Mr. Smith explains, he offers himself as a prize. The number of guesses at $5 per, in violation of the United States laws governing lotteries, which Mr. Smith expects to have made upon himself, might have reached into the thousands, if the postoffice authorities would permit Mr. Smith to work out his novel scheme.

Accompanying the proposition, Mr. Smith sends a little list, in which the enthusiastic candidates for the wifeship to Mr. Smith are expected to tell all about themselves. It will be noted that Mr. Smith has not overlooked the financial end of the scheme, for every feminine candidate when sending her $5 must also state how many more five-dollar bills she possesses to represent a possible dot. Here it is:

(Please fill in and return.)
The number is ..... Name of paper in which I read of you ..... Nationality ..... Age ... Height ..... Weight ... Complexion ..... Health ..... Physical condition ..... Character ..... Disposition ..... Social standing ..... Finances ..... Name, or non de plume. City ..... State ..... No. ... Street ..... Box ..... General delivery ..... Maid ..... Widow ..... Children ..... Father's occupation ..... Remarks .....

Mr. Smith's offer to send the unsuccessful aspirants to his hand and heart a bit of stock in a company "to exploit a valuable proposition" is another unique feature in his scheme. Possibly he intends starting a company to get every man married on the same plan he anticipates following himself.

A hundred other Smiths in the same building as the address given in the circular today, indignantly denied they were the authors of the scheme, and not one of them answered the description the Mr. Smith of matrimonial hopes gives of himself.

CABINET MEMBERS WILL INVADE BUCKEYE STATE

President Roosevelt Desires That His Official Family Take the Stump in Ohio.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—If all of the promises that Senator Dick secured before he left Washington this evening are fulfilled more cabinet officers will take part in the Ohio campaign than were heard in any state campaign. It is possible that every member of the cabinet with the exception of Secretaries Metcalf and Hitchcock will make speeches in Ohio this fall.

The President has taken an interest in the Ohio campaign and when Senator Dick called at the White House this afternoon Mr. Roosevelt assured him that he would use his good offices to induce all of the members of the cabinet who could be spared from their official duties this month to go to Ohio.

Secretary Taft, Secretary Shaw and Postmaster General Cortelyou this afternoon gave Senator Dick assurance that they would participate in the campaign and Secretary Root, Secretary of Navy Bonaparte and Attorney General Moody made tentative promises. Secretary Taft will speak at least once in Ohio before election. He expressed his preference for a date at Akron and it is thought that such arrangements can be made by the state committee.

Secretary Bonaparte grew quite enthusiastic over the prospects of speaking in Ohio and will make an effort to give as much of his time to the campaign as possible. Mr. Bonaparte will speak in Cincinnati, Cleveland and several other large cities.

SOCIETY

THE gowning of the bride and her attendant maids was a feature of the wedding of Miss Ida May Sipe and Charles Edward Marks last evening. St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal church, Sewickley, was the scene of the wedding, at which the Rev. Dr. Robert A. Benton, rector of the church, officiated. The bridal party entered the church at 8:30 o'clock, the ushers leading the procession. They were Herbert E. Marks and Powell A. Creech of New York, B. Franklin Rynd, William H. Kuntzelman, R. Edson Emery, all of this city, and Edward Boobyer and Harry L. V. Sipe of Sewickley. They were followed by the bridesmaids in single file, each in a gown of white organdy over a different color, thus giving a rainbow effect of great beauty. Miss Lora Belle Runyon of Ellwood City, coming first, was in yellow; Miss Anna Miriam Thomas, in blue; Miss Frances O. Greene of New Castle, in pink; Miss Ida Pauline Gleffer, in green; Miss Elizabeth Marks, the bridegroom's sister, in blue, and Miss Mary Ray Haines, in pink. They preceded the maid of honor, Miss Mabel A. Greene of New Castle, who wore a gown of lavender fashioned the same as those of the bridesmaids. Dr. Lewis Marks was his brother's best man. The bridal robe was an exquisite creation of white chiffon cloth, trimmed with hand-made Cluny lace and pearls. The lace was set in a transparent yoke of net, and also in three deep flounces on the skirt. A shower of white roses and lilies of the valley was carried and a spray of the latter dainty flowers fastened the bridal veil of tulle. A diamond and pearl pin, a gift from Mr. Marks, was the bride's only jewel.

The floral work at the wedding was particularly attractive. Wicker vases of Annunciation lilies were artistically combined with palms about the chancel and stair in the church, and at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Sipe, in Sewickley, the same artistic skill was shown. Festoons of asparagus plumosa were effective in the parlor where the mantel was banked with white roses and ferns. White roses and lilies of the valley adorned the dining room. Among the wedding presents was the entire furnishing of the new home in Sewickley of which Mr and Mrs. Marks will take possession after their wedding journey. At-home days for after November 15 have been announced.

Ablett-Fetterman.

After January 1, 1906, Dr. J. M. Fetterman and his bride, Miss Laura Gertrude Ablett, will be at home in Hawthorne, Pa. Their wedding was a pretty home event of last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Job Ablett of Fulton street, Allegheny. The Rev. Dr. Henry D. Lindsay, pastor of the North Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony at 6:30 o'clock, only relatives being present. At 8 o'clock a large reception was held with Mr. and Mrs. Ablett, the latter in a gown of black net, receiving with the bridal couple and the bridal party, which included Miss Alice Ablett, the bride's sister; the best man, Henriel Fetterman, a brother; and the ushers, S. S. Stewart and Frank Ablett. The bride was attired in a gown of white crepe de chine, with trimmings of rose point lace. She wore no veil, but in her hair was a plumed aigrette and her flowers were lilies of the valley and white roses in shower effect. The maid of honor appeared in pink mousseline and carried roses, matching her gown in color. The decorations consisted of palms, mantel bankings of ferns and tropical plants and southern smilax on the doors and windows, while the parlor was done with roses in green and white. In the dining-room the same flowers were used in pink and white.

Among the Clubs.

Gavel from Jerusalem.

A handsome gavel made from wood found in Palestine and brought from Jerusalem by Mrs. Franklin Pierce, who has been traveling during the past year, was presented yesterday afternoon to the Pittsburgh Sorosis. It was the occasion of the annual president's day reception, and the parlors on the second floor of the Hotel Schenley were filled with members of the club and their friends.

There were many surprises beside the presentation of the gavel. A poem written by Mrs. George L. Porter, containing greetings to the new president, Mrs. Dallas Alert, and another written by Mrs. Minnie Gurey Roberts, dedicated to women's clubs, were read by Miss Madden, who gave several other enjoyable readings. After the address of the retiring president, Mrs. Alfred E. Clarke, who introduced the new officers, and an address by Mrs. Albert, there was still another surprise when Mr. Jores, the organist of the Third Presbyterian church, played a graceful waltz composed by Mrs. Albert and dedicated to Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Henry J. Bailey, both of whom have recently returned from a long visit to Japan and China. Vocal numbers were rendered by Miss Davis and Miss McCloy, Mrs. Jean Beard being the accompanist, and songs were sung by Mr. Morgan and Mr. Yuille.

With this object in view the club will hold its annual entertainment early in December at the Hotel Schenley. It will be similar in character to those of other years, and will consist of a children's bazar during the afternoon, with a dance in the evening.

The annual meeting of the club was held yesterday at the home of the president, Mrs. William H. Normecutt, in Stanton avenue. The club has been in existence almost 12 years, having been organized early in 1894. Mrs. Normecutt has been its only president, the other officers changing from time to time. Those elected yesterday include the president, Mrs. Normecutt; vice president, Miss Katherine Ellis; secretary, Miss Charlotte Jefferies; treasurer, Mrs. Charles Johnston.

Will Enlarge the Nursery.

The managers of the Oakland Day Nursery have decided to enlarge the Nursery building during the coming year, the number of children cared for during the past 12 months warranting an increase in the accommodations. The addition will include a large playroom and other apartments to be decided upon later. During the past year over 1,850 children were cared for at the nursery in Atwood street.

The managers held their annual meeting yesterday and beside electing officers, made arrangements for the annual donation day, which will be observed on Thursday, October 26. The former officers were re-elected and include the president, Miss Mary McKee; vice presidents, Mrs. George Abraham and Mrs. W. H. Laishaw; recording secretary, Mrs. William Phillips; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William Edwards; treasurer, Miss Beulah Little.

Effective Village Improvement.

The Village Improvement society of Edgeworth is progressing rapidly in its work of beautifying the new borough. Their regular monthly meeting was held last night, John C. Black, president, presiding. A short address was made by J. Wilkinson Elliott and plans were discussed for work in the borough. A committee was appointed to oversee the planting of trees where needed along the public ways, the trees to correspond with the names of the streets; as, for example, Maple street will be lined with maple trees; Walnut, Chestnut and others similarly.

New Department at Soho Settlement.

Mothers' meetings will be started in the Soho settlement the last week in October. The first meeting will take the form of a Hallowe'en entertainment with music and other features to carry out the idea of the occasion, which is to be social, with several short talks. Mrs. Jane A. Hall will be in charge of the mothers' meetings, and with Mrs. James C. Dick and Mrs. William Wilkinson will visit the homes of the neighborhood before the opening meeting.

The choral classes under the direction of T. Everett Johnston will be inaugurated on Monday, October 16. Mr. Johnston, who is director of music in the Shady Avenue Baptist church and was engaged in the work of organizing choral clubs for boys in Boston before coming to Pittsburgh.

Plans for Flower Dance Progressing.

Mrs. Omar Scott Decker and Mrs. J. Jennings Brooks will have charge of the flower dance, which will be one of the special features of the Homeopathic hospital fair at the Country club on October 19 and 20. Rehearsals are being held by the children of well-known families in Shadyside and the East End. The managers have decided to place the admission price at 25 cents, with 10 cents extra for the round trip in the automobiles, which will meet the street cars at Beechwood boulevard and Forbes street, at the entrance to the Homewood cemetery.

How Athletes Keep Strong and Healthy

Their Diet Should Be a Revelation To Men and Women in the Ordinary Walks of Life.

At this season of the year thousands of young men are devoting several hours a day to the development of their physical strength and endurance and their athletic skill. In practically every university, college, academy and public school in the United States and Canada the football "squads" are at the height of their activities in preparation for the big games yet to come. From mid-afternoon until long after daylight has gone, their trainers rush them through their plays, now striving to improve this point, now that.

Physical perfection, great endurance and unfailing health are positively essential in such severe athletic work and nothing that helps to develop and maintain these qualities in the athlete is overlooked or neglected. Perhaps the most important point in the estimation of successful trainers and coachers is the diet of the athlete.

In schools where a "training table" is provided for the athlete, only the most nutritious food is served, and in cases where there is no training table the athlete is advised to eat the most healthful food only. Whether or not he follows such advice is soon shown by his physical condition. If the average man—the business man, the lawyer, the teacher, the clerk, the mechanic, the laborer—took such care as to the food he eats as the athlete does, there would be far less of sickness and suffering in this world.

Among athletes the food value of whole wheat is recognized. They have demonstrated what scientists have long declared to be true; that the various food elements found in wheat are the food elements with which the blood and muscle, the tissues and cells, the bone and brain of the human body must be replenished if life and perfect strength are to be sustained.

Every nutritive element of the best white wheat grown is found in Malta-Vita, and it is fast becoming as popular among other people as it long has been among athletes.

And Malta-Vita is so good to eat! Always deliciously crisp and refreshing and satisfying. A perfect breakfast is impossible without Malta-Vita, and it's good three times a day. Try a bowl full with cream or fruit. You will thank us for telling you about it. All grocers sell Malta-Vita now for 10 cents per package. Always ready to eat.

WHAT JOY THEY BRING TO EVERY HOME

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play—when in health—and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature, and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained, by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.

JANITOR'S SERIOUS TROUBLE

The second trial for the murder of Guiseppi Folo in Nansen street, Hazelwood, November 19, 1904, was commenced yesterday, when Leonard Geduli, a 17-year-old Italian boy, was placed on trial in criminal court. Joseph Carmecini, a 15-year-old boy, was indicted with Geduli, and it was claimed he did the actual killing of Folo. A severance was granted when the case was called during the June term and Carmecini was tried and convicted of murder of the second degree.

The two boys, it is claimed, had trouble with Folo over some money at their boarding house in Hazelwood avenue. When Folo left the house the boys chased him to a lonely part of Nansen street and while Geduli held him Carmecini is said to have stabbed him to death.

Police Inspector Milton E. Bailey testified as to a confession each of the boys had made in which they admitted the killing. An effort to read the confession was objected to and the court sustained the objections and ruled the confession out.

Joseph Carmecini, who did the stabbing, was placed on the stand but refused to tell his story under oath. His testimony was objected to unless he was sworn as a witness, and he was not allowed to testify.

Ugly Charge Against Janitor.

G. W. Burdette, aged 50, formerly janitor of the Homestead Carnegie library, was placed on trial before Judge Macfarlane on a charge of criminally assaulting Mina Scovel, a 12-year-old Homestead girl. Scores of Homestead men and women and four of his alleged youthful victims were in court to testify against Burdette. Only one witness, the child on whose behalf the information was made, was heard before court adjourned.

The jury in the trial of Antonio Grande, charged with killing Raffaelt Constabile, brought in a verdict of voluntary manslaughter.

Wilkinson Case Postponed.

Owing to his sickness, the trial of Samuel G. Wilkinson, charged with jury tampering in an Allegheny graft case, was postponed.

Appeals to the supreme court were taken in the cases of McMahon and others vs. Burns and others, an action on a contract for the sale of lots in Rosstaver township, Westmoreland county; Elmore A. Willetts, administrator, for use of Robert W. Sutton vs. Frank Metcalf and others, an action on a mortgage; State bank of Pittsburgh, in the hands of John F. Steele, receiver, vs. J. S. Espey, an action growing out of the settlement of the bank's affairs. Like appeals were also entered by Henry Nichols, William Heath, D. D. Horigan, T. J. Williams and Thomas F. Kirk.

An involuntary petition in bankruptcy has been filed against the Dick Company of McKeesport. The creditors are Arbuthnot-Stephenson Company, $11,254.68; J. J. Porter & Co., $589.73; S. M. Ross & Co., $369.89.

In the suit of the borough of Bellevue against Amanda Balph and Andrew W. Douglass, the plaintiff was granted a preliminary injunction restraining the defendants from erecting an addition to a frame dwelling at 402 Lincoln avenue, within the fire lines of the borough.

Ruth A. Hough sued Addison Hough to recover $6,982.50 on a bond. The action grows out of the settlement of an estate.

Libels in divorce were filed by Lizzie Griffith against James H. Griffith on the grounds of infidelity and desertion, and John S. Cooper against Ella C. Cooper for desertion. Decrees in divorce were granted in the cases of Jane M. Barker against Bert O. Barker, and Sadie Kahn against Louis Kaplan.

Margaret Field filed a suit against Carrie Preston, asking for $10,000 damages for slander.

Executions issued: Sol Kaufman against W. E. Duncan, $119.50; A. Williamson & Son against G. W. Fleet, $265.28; P. Brennan against Bolsol & Co., $450; Dora Freshman against J. R. Worley, $577.23, and Reichenbach & Co. against W. G. Slyuly, $152.49.

AT THE THEATERS NEXT WEEK.

At the Belasco the success of "The Girl of the Golden West" was instantaneous and startling. It is regarded by many as the greatest native play of the period. Immense audiences are seeing it and the two weeks given it at the Belasco will be insufficient for all who want to see the play. Miss Blanche Bates does the best work of her brilliant career. Seat sale for the second and last week begins this morning.

At the Nixon "Humpty Dumpty" will begin its second and last week next Monday. This marvel of scenic beauty has made a great impression. Its big scenes are radiant with color and its ballets, divertisements and choruses have never been excelled. Frank Moulan and his associates of the cast create plenty of merriment.

Miss Mabel McKinley, an erstwhile popular vaudeville star, famous not only for her vocal ability, but also because she is the niece of the late President McKinley, figures as a star in the new comedy drama, "The Parson's Wife," which has its initial appearance in this city at the Alvin next week. It is from the pen of Carroll Fleming, and is claimed to be of the higher class of comedy drama, involving an interesting story of New York and Virginia, and containing elements of comedy and pathos that blend naturally and evenly.

"Hearts of Gold" is the attraction announced at the Empire theater for next week. It is described as a romantic, military drama, enlisting the services of a good company. Maurice Freeman, formerly leading man at the American theater, New York city, in its stock company days, has been especially engaged for the part of Burton Casewell.

"The Blue Ribbon Girls," the defender of musical extravaganza and the cup winner of comedy, will hold the boards at the Gayety theater, commencing Monday matinee, in two laughing comedies "Caught With the Goods" and "The Laundry Girls," both of which possesses unusual claim for popularity. In the first place it is bright, bubbling over with new music of a catchy kind. In the second place, it has a company that is strong in number, which comprises 22 girls and 20 men and every one wonderfully talented.

An organization of gilt-edged specialties and pretty girls is announced for next week, beginning Monday matinee, at the Academy, when the "Merry Maidens" will present the new and original musical comedy concoction by Sam Rice, entitled "The Maid and the Mule." The company, chorus and costumes are all A. No. 1.

The Great Agoust family, the latest European novelty, will make their first appearance at the Grand Opera house, next week, presenting here for the first time, "A Lively Night at Maxim's." Williams & Walker's Glee club of 15 people will be seen in a specialty, introducing darky melodies. Blocksom & Burns, eccentric comedians; Eva Westcott and company in the playlet, "An Episode in Modern Life;" Dixon & Anger, the conversational comedians and others are on the bill.

Too Much Worry.

Worry kills more people than disease. It turns our hair gray; draws wrinkles on our face, places lines of care on our brow. We worry because we have too much to do. We worry because we have nothing to do. We worry about our friends. Make our friends wonder at our impatient and irritable nature, and if we don't take the trouble to learn the great secret we will worry ourselves into the grave. Worry is caused by a diseased stomach. Lactonene Dyspepsia Tablets cure it. Get them today. A contented mind is surely yours—the greatest blessing man or woman can have. "Ask the Druggist."

HIGHER RATES FOR MONEY CHECKED RISE IN STOCKS

Call Loans Reached 8 Per Cent, the Highest of the Year—New High Record for Steel Preferred. Big Advance in Lustre.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

The scarcity of money for stock exchange borrowers checked the rise in the New York stock market yesterday, and finally caused a reaction late in the session. The volume of business was larger than for some days past, the sales approximating 840,000 shares, and the losses were slight, except in the case of a few high-priced railroad stocks. The close was near the lowest of the day.

The general course of the market was the direct reverse of that of Tuesday. The opening was firm, despite the lower London quotations and the moderate sales for foreign account. During the first two hours of the session the market was more active and broader than for weeks past, the transactions for that period reaching nearly 600,000 shares. The greatest activity was in low-priced industrials, and many of the latter which have not figured in the dealings of late displayed great buoyancy. The railroad list sympathized with this movement, the strongest of this group being Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio.

In the latter part of the afternoon there was a subsidence of the activity, and as the rate for call loans advanced, prices of stocks gradually declined. Call loans touched 8 per cent just before the close of the market, the highest of the year, and large amounts of money were loaned at 7 per cent, which was the closing quotation. One of the causes assigned for the scarcity of offerings was that the enormous payments on account of New York city taxes, estimated at between $30,000,000 and $40,000,000 during the past two days, temporarily tied up just that amount of funds, the chief depository declining to offer money to stock exchange borrowers. It was also reported that some borrowers, noting the decline in the rate at the close on Tuesday, had paid off 5½ per cent loans before they had completed arrangements for renewals, and that when this demand came upon the market late in the day, the competition for money made it possible to mark up the rate. In ultra-conservative circles it was thought that the remarks of the president of the New York clearing house association at the annual meeting on Tuesday, calling attention to the monetary situation, had something to do with the marking up of the loan rate with the view to checking rampant speculation.

The iron and steel stocks were notably strong, and held their gains well throughout the day. United States Steel preferred sold at 105¾, the highest in its history, but subsequently reacted to 105¼. The common sold at 39, but closed at 38¾. United States Cast Iron Pipe common made a new high record by selling at 39½, but reacted to 37¼, closing with a net gain of only ¼ per cent. Republic Iron and Steel preferred closed ¼ per cent higher. The other iron and steel stocks closed ⅛ to 1¾ per cent lower, the latter Locomotive common.

The largest advance in the entire list was scored by Federal Smelting and Mining, which opened higher at 115¼ and rose to 127⅞, a net gain of 8½ per cent. The preferred rose from 97½ to 99 and closed at 97½. American Smelting jumped 2 per cent to 136¾, but reacted to 128½. Amalgamated Copper crossed 86, but closed at 85⅜. Sugar advanced to 143½ and closed with a net gain of ⅞ per cent.

In the railroad list the largest decline was 1½ per cent for Canadian Pacific. At the annual meeting of the company the directors voted to issue $7,500,000 new stock, which had already been authorized by the stockholders. Wabash common closed ⅝ lower, the preferred 1 per cent higher and Missouri Pacific ¾ per cent lower. The tone of the market was rather heavy at the close.

In the local stock market the largest dealings and the greatest advances were scored by Lustre Mining. The stock opened higher at 34½ and closed at 37, a net gain of 2½ points. There was no additional news relating to the property, but the buying was by the same interests which caused the previous advance. Crucible Steel common held its recent gain, selling at the uniform price of 13½. The preferred was also steady and closed only ⅛ lower. National Fire Proofing common was a shade lower at 68¾, but the preferred held steady at 28. Harbison-Walker preferred declined $1 a share to 68. Manufacturers Light and Heat was firmed at 36, but the other gas stocks were rather heavy. The only important decline, however, was 2¾ per cent in Pittsburgh Oil and Gas. Pittsburgh Coal preferred sold at 89 to 88¾, closing at a loss of ½ per cent. There were no transactions in any of the other coal stocks, which closed unchanged. American Sewer Pipe recovered a fraction to 33¼. Westinghouse Electric sold at 83¾, a decline of ¾. The remainder of the list was quiet, but steady. The transactions for the day were only 4,133 shares.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

Speaking of the local money market situation, an officer of a large downtown national bank said: "I do not think any bank has marked up the rate on call or time loans in our market, but it is reasonable to suppose that in the case of renewals or on entirely new business, the rate would be 6 per cent on time loans, and borrowers who are now paying 4½ to 5 per cent on call loans would probably have to pay 5 to 5½ per cent on any new business. I have positive information regarding our own bank alone, and we are comfortably loaned up, but I understand that this is the position of most of the banks and trust companies. Of course, when the rates advance in New York, the movement has a sympathetic effect here, but bankers as a rule do not look upon current New York rates as likely to last for more than a few weeks. Considering that currency shipments began earlier this year than usual, and have been larger than expected, it is surprising that Wall street did not have a 7 per cent call loan rate in September. It would not be unusual if the rate should touch 10 per cent in New York, but that would have little if any effect here. If 8 million is true, as asserted by brokers, that borrowing on account of the local stock market is smaller now than for years."

The general money situation was the leading subject of discussion in Wall street yesterday. A dispatch to The Gazette said: "No special operations in the money market were known to account for the renewed flurry which reached 8 per cent, the highest rate for the year. The feeling has persisted throughout the week, however, that the real condition in the money market were concealed by last Saturday's bank statement and that the easier conditions which were developing were partly fictitious. A suspicion of this subject was much aggravated by the knowledge of the remarks made at the annual meeting of the clearing house yesterday by the president of one of the larger banks in that association. While no official record was made of those remarks it was known that the sense of them was an emphatic denunciation of the weekly bank statement as an unreliable showing of the condition of the banks and a warning of the danger of the course of the trust companies in the extension of loans without sufficient cash reserves. This is no new subject in Wall street, but present conditions give it renewed force. It is over two years since the clearing house authorities inaugurated attempts to enforce the increase in the cash reserves to be held by the trust companies. The necessity for such provision was argued from the large proportion of trust company deposits payable on demand, said to be at that time at least 85 per cent of the total deposits. It was argued that the entire exemption of the trust companies from the reserve requirement of the clearing house threw an undue burden on the clearing house bank reserves in the time of strain. At that time it was attempted to enforce a minimum reserve requirement of 10 per cent of deposits on the trust companies to be raised to a maximum of 15 per cent in the discretion of the clearing house committee. Most of the trust companies thereupon withdrew from clearing house privileges."

It is surmised that the extraordinary measures taken to effect the favorable showing in last week's bank statement have necessitated some readjustment with the passing of the syndicate requirements of last week, and that the rise in call money rates yesterday was the result of this readjustment. There is a disposition to attribute the unexpected increase in cash reserve last week to the credit of the Rockefeller checks in connection with the $10,600,000 gift to the educational fund. Some effect was produced by the report from abroad that the proposed Russian loan may reach $300,000,000. Foreign discounts continued to advance and foreign exchange rates in New York were firmly held. The money market is faring better at the hands of the sub-treasury this week than last owing to the payments of the October government interest. The period of drain on bank reserves, however, has not yet shown its limit.

The further advance of 5 cents a barrel in Pennsylvania and other high grade oils yesterday, making a total advance of 40 cents a barrel in less than a month, had no effect upon local oil and gas stocks. Pittsburgh Oil and Gas closed ¾ per cent lower at 65¾. Manufacturers Light and Heat was ¼ higher, Philadelphia Company was ⅝ lower and Ohio Fuel Supply did not change hands, being quoted at 37½ bid, 38 asked, ex-dividend. The rise in oil, however, should have a very beneficial effect upon the earnings of Pittsburgh Oil and Gas. That company reported for the fiscal year ended with March 31, 1905, a net production of oil of 783,850 barrels, from which it derived a revenue of $1,038,417. One of the chief reasons for cutting the dividend in two last July was the decline in the price of oil. On last year's total production the advance in the price since September 12 last, would mean nearly $400,000 increased earnings.

In the Boston market North Butte closed at 55¼, a decline of $2 a share from the previous close. The low point of the day was 55, a decline of $4 a share from the top price of Tuesday.

The sale of 50 shares Harbison-Walker preferred at 68 was the first public transaction in the stock since last June, when it sold at 69. The stock pays 4 per cent on par.

Directors of the National Fire Proofing are scheduled to meet today to consider the bond issue. Both the common and preferred stocks were dull and nominally unchanged yesterday.

Atchison directors declared the regular semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent on the common stock.

According to Wall street gossip the directors of Cast Iron Pipe will declare an initial dividend on the common stock next week.

Clearances on the Pittsburgh stock exchange for September were 274,180 shares against 190,489 shares in September, 1904, and 359,505 shares in August, 1905.

The head of a large New York commission house acted this opinion to a Pittsburgh correspondent: "The last time copper metal was 17c, Amalgamated was around 130. It is now 86. Any man who will follow it will get par for it before March 1, 1906."

Gross earnings of Wabash for September decreased $448,858.

Gross earnings of Chicago & Alton for August decreased $126,790 and net decreased $136,569.

The Pennsylvania's earnings on lines directly operated east of Pittsburgh in August were the largest in gross and net ever made in any month. August is usually a fair month for earnings, but it is not a month in which a record would be expected. This record presages great autumn traffic and profits.

Gross earnings of Rock Island for August increased $584,778 and net increased $62,375.

The American Car and Foundry Company reports the results for the quarter ended July 31, the first quarter of the company's fiscal year, as follows: Net earnings, $628,212; dividend or rate of 1¾ per cent for the quarter on preferred stock, $525,000; surplus for quarter, $100,312; surplus April 30, 1905, $12,403,434; total surplus July 31, $12,505,746.

Profits on International Smokeless Powder this year will reach $750,000, according to good authority. Last year the net earnings were about $613,000. The next quarterly dividend on the common stock will probably be at the rate of 50 cents a share, making the total disbursements for the year $1 62½, or the same as in 1904. The Dupont International preferred stock goes on a 6 per cent dividend basis in January.

The total engagements of gold for import on the present movement have been $9,450,000, of which $4,350,000 have been received.

The election of J. P. Morgan, Jr. to the Northern Pacific board excites much interest inasmuch as it is the first important directorship he has assumed. It is thought that this may indicate his permanent return to the United States.

The reports that the Pullman Company is to declare a scrip dividend or order a disbursement of some kind of its large surplus, while credited to some quarters, cannot be confirmed. The last annual report of earnings shows that the company has a surplus of over $13,000,000, and from what can be gathered earnings for the last fiscal year ended July 31 should bring that item close to $21,000,000, or possibly more.

The first annual meeting of the Lake Superior Corporation, which is the reorganized consolidated Lake Superior Corporation, was held in Jersey City yesterday. All the retiring directors were re-elected and Alfred F. Boller was elected a director to succeed the late George B. T. Terrell. The annual statement submitted showed total net income of $555,539. After payment of interest on first mortgage bonds amounting to $452,173, and $98,562 for taxes and general expenses, there remained a surplus for the year of $54,802.

The bituminous coal trade is improving every day. Not only are prices better, but the demand has improved, and there is a better disposition on the part of some people to stock up, and keep on hand a good supply in order to be ready for all contingencies. The supply of cars is good and those who do not own their own equipment are much inconvenienced. There still continues a lack of labor supply at the mines and the production is restricted because of this. The general expectation is that there will be an actual scarcity of coal by reason of the inability of railroads to handle the business within a few weeks and that prices will be higher.

The Pig Iron Storage Company made the following statement of stock in warrant yards 31st, under 30: On hand August 31, 1905, 56,000 tons; received during September, 1,296 tons; total, 58,000 tons; delivered during September, 10,800 tons; total on hand September 30, 1905, 71,200 tons.

In the New York bond market yesterday United States 2s declined ½ per cent on call.

PRICES OF IRON RISING SHARPLY

GENERAL STEEL MARKET NEWS

Higher prices for pig iron, Bessemer, basic and foundry, have marked the present week's iron market. One sale of Bessemer, amounting to close to 1,000 tons, was made at $15 75 at the furnace. Basic is now quoted at the same price and No. 2 foundry is placed at $15 50.

The quotation of southern No. 2 foundry is given as $13 50. There have been sales of southern foundry within the week at about that price.

The buying orders are large and numerous in all lines of iron. The threatened depletion of stocks by the great demand of the finishing mills is imminent enough to cause the steel companies considerable concern.

In steel itself the week has been an active one. Small orders for billets, Bessemer or open-hearth are exceedingly difficult to fill. An offer of $25 00 for a small lot of small Bessemer billets for immediate delivery was turned down by one manufacturer. The market price for billets now may be considered $26 00 and $26 00.

The finished lines are in the same remarkable demand which characterized September, the volume of orders exceeding the most optimistic predictions made in the late summer. Rail and structural mills, wire mills and even the pipe and sheet and tin plate mills are all sharing in this vast volume of business, and the outlook is rather for a larger demand than for a decrease.

The coke market is feeling keenly the condition. Connellsville furnace coke has been quoted as high as $2 70, while consumers are eager to make contracts for 1906 delivery of foundry at $2 25 or even higher. Car shortage is beginning to cause complaints and a few furnace operators claim they may have to shut down soon unless better service is given.

The Hardware Market.

The fall business in hardware is fully up to expectations, the demand for goods being very heavy and orders coming in freely from all sides. The warm weather is making the demand for season goods in stoves, coal hods, fenders, fire shovels and certain cold weather goods a little quick, but this is more than made up by the excellent demand for general lines in builders' hardware and supplies and tools of various kinds for outdoor work. The window glass business continues to move along in good shape, the demand being a steady one and for the needs of consumers. Prices continue very firm in this line, and from present indications they are liable to be even slightly higher than they are today. Nails and wire continue to move out in good quantities, there being some little difficulty in getting prompt shipments from the mill, owing to the tremendous demand for this line of goods. Prices in all lines continue firm, there being no recent changes noted. The Bindley Hardware Company furnishes the following quotations:

Columbia pocket knives, discount 35 per cent; Albion hatchets, discount 40 and 10 per cent; Bindley canal shovels, $6 50 the dozen; Great Western files, discount 70 and 10 per cent; sheet iron, base $26 00, $2 25 the 100 pounds; galvanized sheet iron, discount 50 and 10 per cent; sash weights, the ton, $27 00; window glass, first and second brackets, 3 15 single, 90 per cent off list October 1, 1904; all other sizes, single and double, 83 per cent off list, October 1, 1904. PIG IRON PRICES FIRM AND TENDING UPWARD

Conservative Interests Fear to Advance Prices Too Rapidly, Especially for Raw Materials.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 4.—The Iron Trade Review tomorrow will say: Buying has continued steadily during the past week, giving ample evidence of general prosperity in the iron and steel business, but the period has not been characterized by the placing of orders of unusual size or importance. Among conservative interests there is a growing feeling that, if there is any danger in the present situation, it lies in the tendency to advance prices too rapidly, especially for raw materials.

Pig iron prices in the south are firm and tending upward. At Birmingham some of the largest producers are out of the market, which is now strong at $12 50. Since the recent sales of Bessemer were made to the Steel corporation at $15, two leading sellers have withdrawn from the market with the expectation that $15 50 will prevail when they are again ready to enter. Quotations on foundry iron in the central west show an increasing tendency to name prohibitive prices for next year's delivery. Heavy buying of rails is apparently over for the present.

BUYING MOVEMENT HAS SURPRISED PRODUCERS

Has Come Earlier Than They Expected, and Is of Surprising Volume—Price of Coke Advancing.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The Iron Age tomorrow will say of the iron and metal trades: While the largest producers of iron and steel have been preparing for some time for the heavy consumption they have anticipated, the buying movement has come somewhat earlier than they expected and has been of surprising volume. As an indication of what has been happening, we may note that the September sales of the United States Steel Corporation constituted a record and have been double its capacity.

The most interesting development of the past week has been the rush to buy furnace coke for 1906. A number of the large steel companies have closed very important contracts and the pig iron makers generally have hastened to cover. The price has advanced from $2 55 to $2 65 at ovens for strictly Connellsville coke, which is about $1 above the price at which coke was sold in the spring.

This means a very serious addition to the cost of production of pig iron, and accounts for the attitude which makers are assuming. They are putting up prices and are chary of taking business beyond the first quarter of 1906. Then, too, the feeling is growing that speculative buying on the part of consumers, of which there are some indications, should be discouraged.

The large steel interests are outspoken in their determination to prevent a runaway market, and in this the makers of pig iron join, although they insist prices must reach a level which will compensate them for the higher cost of manufacture.

Steel is very scarce in all parts of the country. The rail trade has quieted down a little. The pressure for structural material continues. Bars have been displaying an advancing tendency, and a further rise in the price of bands and hoops is expected at an early date.

Foreign Money Market.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Money was wanted in the market today for the consols settlement and considerable sums which had to be repaid to the Bank of England. Discounts hardened. Prices on the stock exchange were heavy, owing to fears of dearer money. Consols opened depressed and recovered a fraction, but lost it at the close. Home rails dropped. Americans were an exception to the prevailing conditions and opened steady at parity. The changes were mixed. Union Pacific was off. Prices later were mostly firmer. Trading was quiet and the market closed dull. Canadian Pacific hardened on the traffic increase. Grand Trunk declined. The traffic returns were regarded favorably, but were used as a cover for selling. Foreigners were moderately steady and inactive. Japanese were in fair demand. Kaffirs were weak. Japanese imperial 4s of 1904 were quoted at 86 1/4. Consols for money, 78 1/16; consols for account, 78 1/4; bar silver steady, 28 1/2d an ounce; money, 2 1/2@3 per cent; discount rates, short bills, 3 1/4 per cent; three months' bills, 3 1/4 per cent.

PARIS, Oct. 4.—Prices on the bourse today were firm throughout the day; leading financiers confirmed the announcement of an early issue of a new Russian loan; Russian imperial 4s were quoted at 94.75 and Russian bonds of 1904 at 92.25; three per cent rentes, 93 francs 70 centimes for the account; exchange on London, 25 francs 14 1/2 centimes for checks.

BERLIN, Oct. 4.—Prices on the bourse today were depressed by realizations due seemingly to the money situation; exchange on London, 20 marks 45 pfgs. for checks; discount rates, short bills, 4 per cent; three months' bills, 3 1/2 per cent.

Banks and the Treasury.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—(Special.)—In redemption of checks drawn by depositors of gold at the San Francisco and Seattle assay offices, today's official statement shows that the sub-treasury paid out yesterday $52,862. Of this amount $3,403 had been deposited at San Francisco and $49,459 at Seattle. Total thus paid since Friday, $235,678, against $422,651 for the same period a week ago; total payment by government to New York banks for the day, $5,844,-000. Payment by banks to government, $5,819,-000. Withdrawn from the market with the expectation that $15 50 will prevail when they are again ready to enter. Quotations on foundry iron in the central west show an increasing tendency to name prohibitive prices for next year's delivery. Heavy buying of rails is apparently over for the present.

Total net payment by banks to government since Friday, $1,482,000, against $4,742,000 similarly paid for the corresponding period a week ago, and $3,-000,000 also paid by banks to government a year ago. Included in the foregoing summary is $175,000 deposited by banks with the sub-treasury for payment at interior points; total thus deposited since Friday, $875,000, against $400,000 for the same period a week ago and $200,000 in the same period a year ago.

New York Money Market.

CHEESE NOT SO FIRM; EGG RECEIPTS HEAVY

Canned Corn and Tomatoes Feature in Arrivals—Onions and Grapes Are Down.

The cheese market was a little weak yesterday, although no changes were announced in quotations. Eggs also suffered somewhat from heavy arrivals, but were selling at the old quotations. Storage men are beginning to feel some uneasiness because of the large number of eggs in storage which they fear may, with large shipments due to the fine fall weather, keep the prices down for some time.

Canned corn and tomatoes are now coming in in large quantities. The former rules at about the same quotations that prevailed at this time last year. Tomatoes, on the other hand, are about 20 cents a dozen higher, owing to the shorter crop caused by the extremely wet summer. The produce market remained steady, with no changes of importance in quotations. Yellow Danver onions were advanced 25 cents a barrel. Grapes dropped another cent, with a corresponding decline in jobbers' prices at the yards.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts.

Receipts yesterday were: Pennsylvania lines, 10 cars hay, 10 cars oats, 2 cars corn, 9 cars feed, 2 cars rye; Baltimore & Ohio railroad, 8 cars hay, 5 cars oats, 9 cars feed; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, 4 cars hay, 2 cars corn.

The hay market was steady, with an increasing call for the better grades. Straw is in better call and there is comparatively little of it in the yards. Receipts of feed were a little larger and more rye is coming to the city. Corn and oats remained firm in price at yesterday's quotations.

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

Thomas J. Hurley, managing director of the Mines Securities Corporation, has issued a report to the stockholders on the physical condition of the 41 mines belonging to the corporation. The new reduction plant has been completed and is now working commercially. The entire product is shipped to the American Smelting and Refining Company under a three-years' contract. Mr. Hurley advocates the building of another mill of 50 tons capacity on the Natalie-Occidental property and as the Natalie-Occidental Company has 400,000 shares in its treasury, he advocates the sale of 200,000 shares of the Natalie stock at 10 cents a share, with which to raise funds to build the plant. Mr. Hurley's report states that there are 400,000 tons of ore blocked out in the Cripple Creek district. The output for the Cripple Creek district for September was slightly under the preceding month, amounting to $1,888,000. To insure that amount of gold it was necessary to treat 32,000 tons of ore. The outlook for the coming month is extremely good and it is believed that the production will reach the 2,000,000 mark. The dividends paid for the first nine months of the year by 15 stock companies of the Cripple Creek district amount to $1,320,000. At this rate the dividends for the public companies for the year will amount to about $1,550,000. Were it possible to secure the profits of the three corporations not paying dividends, the total would easily be shown that the profits in the district will amount to $2,-000,000 for the year. The dividends for September are small, amounting to only $129,000, of which the Findley paid $15,000, El Paso $40,000, Elkton $12,500 and Granite $12,500.

Eighty-nine mining and investment companies in the United States paid $28,397,997 in dividends in the nine months ending September 30. According to the Mining World of Chicago these companies have declared since incorporation a total of $326,984,624 on an issued capitalization of $525,155,040.

Salt Lake, Utah: The Las Vegas & Tonopah Railroad Company has issued $1,000,000 of bonds. The corporation has an authorized capital of $4,000,000, of which $1,500,000 has been subscribed. The officers of the corporation are: President, J. Ross Clark; vice president, C. O. Whittemore; secretary, W. H. Comstock; treasurer, R. J. Waters. The purpose of the corporation is to construct and operate a line of railroad from a point in connection with the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake railroad at Las Vegas, Nev., by the most feasible and practicable route through the counties of Lincoln, Nye and Esmeralda to the town of Tonopah, Nev., with connections to the mining camps of Bullfrog, Rhyolite, Ellis and Goldfield. The incorporators say that the construction of the road will begin at once and be pushed to completion.

BOSTON, Oct. 4.—Call money 5 per cent today tells the story. Loans were market 4@5 by the banks all along the line, but the crop caused considerable liquidation and made prompt money scarce yesterday. The liquidation which has gone on today will help the market and we feel that stocks are in a better position today than they have been for many days, and they will probably go lower tomorrow. We advise the purchase of a few good Copper stocks, Allouez, Atlantic, Arcadian and Mohawk. The feeling appears common as to the fact that the money market will be better within a few weeks and stocks ought then to be a good deal higher for much higher prices.

SANITARIUM LOT SOLD FOR $40,000

W. C. Lyne Disposes of Old Fahnestock Homestead in Twenty-First Ward.

MORE BUILDING IN BELLEVUE

W. C. Lyne has sold the former Pittsburgh sanitarium property in the Twenty-first ward for a little over $40,000. The reputed buyer is George R. McAbee, president of the George R. McAbee Powder and Oil Company, and in part payment for the property it is reported that he tendered a large plot of Edgewood frontage. The sanitarium property was formerly the Fahnestock homestead and was bought by Mr. Lyne about four years ago and conducted some time as a sanitarium. The house is an old-fashioned brick dwelling containing 16 rooms and stands on a lot facing 278 feet on the north side of Meade street, between Homewood and Lexington avenue. It has a depth of 114.2 feet and a width in the rear of 166 feet. The house has not been occupied for a sanitarium for over a year and is vacant now. The Edgewood frontage, which is said to have figured in the deal is a plot on the south side of Swissvale avenue, about one square east of Edgewood station. It adjoins the big holdings of George Westinghouse and the C. C. Meiler plan of lots.

Bellevue Operation of $100,000.

Bellevue is soon to have another $100,000 building operation started. Hallett Brothers, who have already built over 30 houses in Bellevue, costing from $5,000 to $10,000 each, are now getting ready to improve their 250 feet of Lincoln avenue frontage with six store and flat buildings. The site is at the corner of Fremont street and has a depth of 100 feet. As planned now the buildings will be three-story brick structures with terra cotta fronts, having the first floors designed for store-rooms and the upper floors for flats. They will cost together at least $100,000. The property is in the neighborhood where Hallett Brothers have done most of their building, their last important project being the making over of the old United Presbyterian church into an apartment house of 14 flats, all but one of which are now rented for from $25 to $35 a month each.

J. W. Westhead and J. V. Evans will soon start the erection of six more reception hall brick houses in Bellevue to cost about $6,000 each. The firm has just completed three 10-room brick houses in Dawson avenue, near Thomas avenue, which stand on lots 25x150 feet and cost $5,000 each.

Nice House Sales in East End.

Through the office of J. N. Kidney & Co., Dr. F. L. McCullough has sold to Ida M. Moorhead the property at 560 North Negley avenue at the northeast corner of Margaretta street, Nineteenth ward, for $14,000. Last spring the same brokers sold the property to Charles Kuhn of Carnegie for $13,625 and he later transferred it to Dr. McCullough for the same price. The house is a nine-room reception hall brick on a lot 70x120 feet and will be remodeled at considerable expense for a home for the buyer.

J. A. Young & Co. have sold the first of the nine houses which Samuel McCaslin has recently completed on the east side of Pacific avenue, near Coral street, Twendieth ward, for $10,500, the buyer being W. H. Mays, who made the purchase for a home. The residence is a reception hall dwelling of 11 rooms on a lot 32x155 feet extending back to Frederika street.

These are days of big offers and few sales. There is hardly a big firm in the city that has not submitted one or more such tenders in the last few days. It is the continued stubbornness of property owners in adhering to prices that have no attraction to the would-be buyer when viewed from an income standpoint that makes the market drag. One broker put the matter very sensibly yesterday when he said: "Property owners who are asking such fancy prices will have a chance to pay taxes on their holdings a long time yet unless they do one of two things—come down on their prices or improve their lots with buildings that will furnish a good income basis to talk on."

Phipps' Skyscraper Has a Name.

At last the skyscraper which Henry Phipps is building at the northeast corner of Sixth street and Duquesne way, opposite the Bessemer building, has a name. It will be known as the Fulton building, Mr. Phipps having decided to honor the original steamboat builder. The 13-story structure is nearly under roof and covers a site 120x150 feet, or considerably larger than the Bessemer building. It will contain about 250 office rooms, which will be arranged singly or en suite to accommodate incoming tenants. On the first floor there will be four large store rooms, facing in Sixth street, besides the entrance to the Grand Opera theater. The building will be completed by March 1.

The Springdale Power Company, which will shortly apply for a Pennsylvania charter, has had an experienced engineer from New York here taking estimates on the probable cost of construction of the immense plant which it proposes to build on the Allegheny river bank at Springdale in the spring. It is thought that with the addition of a few auxiliary engines 10,000 horse power can be developed at the dam. Other engineers are to be called into consultation this fall and the most careful inspection will be made by the company's officials of the methods that have made the big water power plants on the east so successful. With the proposed plant in operation it is predicted that many of the sites on the Allegheny river bank above Allegheny will be taken up for small manufactories which have found locations in the crowded city too expensive.

Must Go to Lawyers Now.

Real estate men will be somewhat interested in a peculiar statement made by the Guarantee Title and Trust Company in its affidavit of defense in the case which D. Walter Bell recently brought against it, claiming damages as the result of certain advice alleged to have been given by officials of the Guarantee to his purchase of a small property in Sewickley. The contention arose over a building line which Mr. Bell claims the Guarantee officials told him would never make him any trouble, but which subsequently stopped his house building. The statement referred to follows: "The defendant denies that it counselled or advised concerning said real estate, and avers that it is not engaged in advising and counselling in regard to real estate and that advising and counselling are matters of law which do not come within the scope of its charter."

This puts new light on real estate dealing, as buyers are accustomed to look very largely to title insurance companies of advice in regard to their deals.

J. L. and A. S. Kendall, officials of the Youngh Manor Lumber Company of this city, have bought the entire lumber holdings of the Preston Lumber and Coal Company of Wilkesbarre for about $750,000. The property includes 24,000 acres of virgin timber in Maryland, a sawmill, a railroad 32 miles long equipped with three locomotives and 40 cars, besides houses, stores and a valuable timber equipment. A new concern capitalized at $1,000,000 and to be called the Kendall Lumber Company, will be formed to operate the tract.

EULOGY ON ROCKEFELLER.

Is Pronounced by Friend and Fellow Millionaire, D. K. Pearsons, Chicago Philanthropist.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—"I would rather be John D. Rockefeller today, divested of his wealth and with his lovable personality than any of the crew, saints or sinners, who are attacking him." The foregoing is a quotation from an interview published today from Dr. D. K. Pearsons, a Chicago millionaire nationally known as a philanthropist.

Mr. Pearsons showed a recent letter which he had received from Mr. Rockefeller. Divested of personal items, it concluded:

"Thank you for your kind words, good friend, I appreciate them. Life is short and you and I have too much to do in the world to be diverted from our purposes to try and make things better. Let us keep right on and do our best in our day and generation, rejoicing in the beautiful sentiment expressed by our lamented Lincoln: 'With malice toward none and charity for all.'"

LARGER ENGINE HOUSE.

Appropriation for Eighteenth Ward Increased—Anti-Spitting Ordinance Approved.

The appropriation for the new engine house in the Eighteenth ward was increased from $15,000 to $23,000, yesterday, by the public safety committee of councils, Director Moore stating that it was the intention to enlarge the plans so as to accommodate a hook and ladder truck as well as an engine and hose carriage.

The committee also approved the new anti-spitting ordinance, introduced by Select Councilman E. R. Walters. The opponents of the bill claim it cannot be legally passed by the present councils, because a similar ordinance was defeated in councils August, 1904. This argument is combatted by a precedent established by Director Bigelow a short time ago, when the repealer for the widening of Second avenue, which has been indefinitely postponed, was taken up and passed by common council.

SEMINARY OPENS.

Allegheny Theological Students Will Start Their Studies Today.

The Allegheny Theological seminary was opened yesterday with a reception in the chapel that was attended by students and faculty. The 24 who matriculated were introduced to their professors and assigned their rooms. Recitations will start today.

In the absence of Dr. A. J. Grier, who is away for an indefinite period, his work will be done by three local ministers, the Rev. Dr. W. H. McMillen of the Second church, Allegheny, who will have charge of systematic theology, the Rev. Dr. W. W. Lawrence of Bellevue, who will teach the history of doctrines, and the Rev. Dr. George E. Hawes of Braddock will teach the junior class in homiletics. The opening address will be delivered at the Fourth United Presbyterian church on October 15 by Dr. Lawrence.

M'ARDLE NOT OPPOSED TO NEW GENERAL UNION

Although opposed by the American Federation of Labor, the Industrial Workers of the World, the new general labor organization, seems to have the approval of President P. J. McArdle, of the Amalgamated association. The new organization is making an effort to break into the Carnegie and Jones & Laughlin steel companies plants. Mr. McArdle said yesterday that he thought the union would be a good thing for the steel workers.

The Taking Cold Habit

The old cold goes; a new one quickly comes. It's the story of a weak throat, a tendency to consumption. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral breaks up the taking-cold habit. It strengthens, heals. Ask your doctor to tell you all about it. Then follow his advice.

"I had a terrible cold, and nothing relieved me. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and it promptly broke up my cold, stopped my cough, and eased every part of my body. It did wonderful work for me."—F. LUTZ, Toledo, Ohio.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."
